SECTION 40. Probation officers shall assist the courts appointing 1 them, by obtaining and furnishing information relative to previous 2 arrests, convictions and imprisonments for drunkenness, and such 3 other facts as the court orders relative to persons accused of drunk- 4 enness. They shall keep a full record, well indexed, of each such 5 case which they investigate, in such form as the court orders. Pro- 6 bation officers of the municipal courts in Boston shall furnish a 7 copy of the record in each such case to the municipal court of 8 the city of Boston, which shall cause all records and statements 9 received by it to be so consolidated and kept that they may be 10 readily consulted, and for such purpose may employ the neces- 11 sary clerical assistance. The compensation for such service, which 12 shall be fixed by the court, and such other necessary expenses as 13 the court shall incur in complying with the provisions of this sec- 14 tion shall be paid by the county of Suffolk, upon vouchers approved 15 by the court. 16

municipal court or trial justice that he believes or has probable 2 cause to believe that any place, house, building or tenement within 3 the jurisdiction of such court or justice is used or resorted to for 4 the purpose of smoking opium or any of its preparations, or for the 5 purpose of selling or giving away opium or any of its preparations 6

7 to be smoked at such place, house, building or tenement, and that 8 persons resort thereto for such purposes, such court or trial justice, 9 whether the names of the persons last mentioned are known or 10 unknown to the complainant, shall, if satisfied that there is probable 11 cause therefor, issue a warrant commanding the sheriff or his deputy 12 or any constable or police officer to enter such place, house, build-13 ing or tenement and there to arrest the keepers thereof, and all 14 persons there present, whether smoking or not, if the imple-
 15 ments for smoking opium or any of its preparations are there 16 found, and seize all the opium or preparations thereof and all the 17 implements for smoking the same and all the furniture, fixtures and 18 other personal property there found, and to keep said persons, 19 opium, preparations thereof, implements, furniture, fixtures and 20 property so that they may be produced before a court or magis-
 21 trate, to be dealt with according to law. Whoever is found so 22 present or so smoking shall be punished by a fine of not more than 23 one hundred dollars for each offence. The provisions of sections 24 three to eight, inclusive, of chapter two hundred and seventeen rela-
 25 tive to articles seized under clause eleven of section one of said 26 chapter shall apply to all opium, preparations thereof, implements, 27 furniture, fixtures and property so seized.

1 SECTION 44. An officer who makes a search under the provi-
 2 sions of the preceding section shall not be permitted to use any 3 evidence of any crime, except that of opium smoking, which he 4 may discover, in making further prosecutions against the persons 5 whose premises are searched.

1 SECTION 45. Whoever unreasonably neglects to provide for the 2 support of his wife or minor child shall be punished by a fine of not 3 more than twenty dollars or by imprisonment for not more than 4 six months. All fines imposed under the provisions of this section 5 may, in the discretion of the court, be paid in whole or in part to 6 the city, town, corporation, society or person actually supporting 7 such wife or minor child at the time of making the complaint.
 8 Proof of neglect to provide for the support of a wife or minor

SECTION 70. Whoever overdrives, overloads, drives when over- 1 loaded, overworks, tortures, torments, deprives of necessary suste- 2
nance, cruelly beats, mutilates or kills an animal, or causes or 3 procures an animal to be so overdriven, overloaded, driven when 4 overloaded, overworked, tortured, tormented, deprived of neces- 5 sary sustenance, cruelly beaten, mutilated or killed, and whoever, 6 having the charge or custody of an animal, either as owner or 7 otherwise, inflicts unnecessary cruelty upon it, or unnecessarily 8 fails to provide it with proper food, drink, shelter or protection 9 from the weather, and whoever as owner, possessor or person hav- 10 ing the charge or custody of an animal, cruelly drives or works it 11 when unfit for labor, or cruelly abandons it, or carries it or causes it 12 to be carried in or upon a vehicle, or otherwise, in an unnecessarily 13 cruel or inhuman manner, or knowingly and wilfully authorizes 14 or permits it to be subjected to unnecessary torture, suffering or 15 cruelty of any kind, shall be punished by imprisonment for not 16 more than one year or by a fine of not more than two hundred and 17 fifty dollars, or by both such fine and imprisonment. 18

Corporations liable.

1868, 212, § 7.
1869, 344, § 6.
P. S. 207, § 54.

SECTION 71. A corporation which violates any provision of the 1 preceding section shall be punished by a fine as therein provided, 2 and shall be responsible for the knowledge and acts of its agents 3 and servants relative to animals transported, owned or used by it 4 or in its custody. 5

Mutilation of horses.

1889, 267.
1894, 461, §§ 1-3.

SECTION 72. Whoever cuts the bone of the tail of a horse for 1 the purpose of docking the tail, or whoever causes or knowingly 2 permits the same to be done upon the premises of which he is the 3 owner, lessee, proprietor or user, or whoever assists in or is present 4 at such cutting, shall be punished by imprisonment for not more 5 than one year or by a fine of not less than one hundred nor more 6 than three hundred dollars. If a horse is so found with its tail 7 so cut and with the wound resulting from such cutting unhealed, 8 upon the premises of any person or in the charge and custody of 9 any person, such fact shall be prima facie evidence of a violation 10 of the provisions of this section by the owner or user of such prem- 11 ises or the person having such charge or custody, respectively. 12

SECTION 73. Railroad corporations shall not permit animals 1 which they are carrying or transporting to be confined in cars 2 longer than twenty-eight consecutive hours without unloading them 3 for at least five consecutive hours for rest, water and feeding, unless 4 prevented by storm or accident. In estimating such confinement, 5 the time during which the animals have been confined without such 6 rest on connecting roads from which they are received shall be in- 7 cluded. Animals so unloaded shall during such rest be properly 8 fed, watered and sheltered by the owner or person having the cus- 9 tody of them, or, in case of his default, by the railroad corporation 10 transporting them, at the expense of said owner or person in cus- 11 tody thereof. In such case the corporation shall have a lien upon 12 such animals for food, care and custody furnished, and shall not be 13 liable for such detention. A corporation, owner or custodian of 14 such animals who fails to comply with the provisions of this sec- 15 tion shall be punished by a fine of not less than one hundred nor 16

17 more than five hundred dollars. The provisions of this section shall 18 not apply to animals carried in cars in which they can and do have 19 proper food, water, space and opportunity for rest.

1 SECTION 74. A person found violating any provision of sec-
2 tions seventy and seventy-three may be arrested and held without 3 a warrant as provided in section forty-seven: and the person mak-
4 ing an arrest with or without a warrant shall use reasonable dili-5 gence to give notice thereof to the owner of animals found in the 6 charge or custody of the person arrested, shall properly care and 7 provide for such animals until the owner thereof takes charge of 8 them, not, however, exceeding sixty days from the date of said
9 notice and shall have a lien on said animals for the expense of such 10 care and provision.

1 SECTION 75. If complaint is made to a court or magistrate
2 which is authorized to issue warrants in criminal cases that the 3 complainant believes and has reasonable cause to believe that the 4 laws relative to cruelty to animals have been or are violated in any 5 particular building or place, such court or magistrate, if satisfied
6 that there is reasonable cause for such belief, shall issue a search
7 warrant authorizing any sheriff, deputy sheriff, constable or police 8 officer to search such building or place: but no such search shall be 9 made after sunset, unless specially authorized by the magistrate 10 upon satisfactory cause shown.

etc.; proceedings thereon.
1869, 435, § 2.
1876, 85, § 4.
P. S. 207, § 63.

SECTION 82. After such seizure and removal of such birds, dogs or other animals, application shall be made to a police, district or municipal court or a trial justice, for a decree of forfeiture of the same, and if, upon the hearing of such application, such notice thereof having been previously given as the justice or court orders, it shall be found that such birds, dogs or other animals, or any of them, at the time of such seizure were engaged in fighting at an exhibition thereof, or were owned, kept, possessed or trained by any person with the intent that they should be so engaged, such birds, dogs or other animals shall be adjudged forfeited and such justice or court shall thereupon, unless an appeal is taken as hereinafter provided, issue an order for killing them, which shall be directed to any officer who is authorized to serve criminal process; and the officer receiving said order shall cause such birds, dogs or other animals to be killed within twenty-four hours thereafter. Birds, dogs or other animals seized as hereinbefore provided, which are not adjudged forfeited, shall be delivered to the owner or to the person who is entitled to the possession thereof. Any person shall be allowed to appear as claimant in the proceeding upon the application for a decree of forfeiture.

Appeal.
1876, 85, § 5.
P. S. 207, § 64.

SECTION 83. An owner or claimant who is aggrieved by a judgment of such court or trial justice may, within twenty-four hours

3 after the entry of such judgment and before execution thereof,
 4 appeal therefrom to the superior court; and all proceedings upon 5 and after such appeal, including the right of exception, shall con-
 6 form, so far as may be, to those in criminal cases, except that before 7 such appeal is allowed the appellant shall recognize to the common-8 wealth in the sum of two hundred dollars, with sufficient sureties, 9 to prosecute his appeal and to pay such expenses of the prosecution 10 as the court may order and such expenses as may be thereafter in-11 curred in the care and keeping of the birds, dogs or other animals 12 claimed by such appellant if final judgment is rendered against 13 them, and to abide the judgment of the court thereon. Upon the 14 final judgment, the birds, dogs or other animals which are held in 15 custody to abide such judgment shall be disposed of under the 16 direction of the superior court, in like manner as the court or 17 justice might have disposed of them if no appeal had been taken.
 18 During the pendency of the appeal, all birds, dogs or other animals
 19 which have been adjudged forfeited shall be kept in custody in a 20 place other than that from which they were taken.

1 SECTION 84. The necessary expenses which are incurred in the 2 care and destruction of such birds, dogs and other animals may 3 be allowed and paid in the same manner as expenses in criminal 4 prosecutions.

SECTION 89. Whoever makes any distinction, discrimination or 1 restriction on account of color or race or, except for good cause, 2 applicable alike to all persons of every color and race, relative to 3 the admission of any person to, or his treatment in, a theatre, 4 skating rink or other public place of amusement, licensed or unli- 5 censed, or in a public conveyance or public meeting, or in an inn, 6 barber shop or other public place kept for hire, gain or reward, 7 licensed or unlicensed, or whoever aids or incites such distinction, 8 discrimination or restriction, shall, for each offence, be punished by 9 a fine of not more than three hundred dollars or by imprisonment 10 for not more than one year, or by both such fine and imprison- 11 ment, and shall forfeit to any person aggrieved thereby not less 12 than twenty-five nor more than three hundred dollars; but such 13 person so aggrieved shall not recover against more than one person 14 by reason of any one act of distinction, discrimination or restriction. 15

CHAPTER 213.

Adulteration of liquor used for drink.
 1855, 356.
 G. S. 166, § 4.
 P. S. 208, § 4.

SECTION 1. Whoever, for the purpose of sale, adulterates any 1 liquor used or intended for drink with Indian cockle, vitriol, grains 2 of paradise, opium, alum, cochineal, capsicum, copperas, laurel 3 water, logwood, Brazil wood, sugar of lead or any other substance 4 which is poisonous or injurious to health, and whoever knowingly 5 sells any such liquor so adulterated, shall be punished by imprison- 6 ment in the state prison for not more than three years; and the 7 articles so adulterated shall be forfeited. 8

Sale of poison.

 1888, 209.
 1896, 397, § 20.
 1898, 192.

SECTION 2. Whoever sells arsenic (arsenious acid), atropia or 1 any of its salts, chloral hydrate, chloroform, cotton root and its 2 fluid extract, corrosive sublimate, cyanide of potassium, Donovan's 3 solution, ergot and its fluid extract, Fowler's solution, laudanum, 4 McMunn's elixir, morphia or any of its salts, oil of pennyroyal, oil 5 of savin, oil of tansy, opium, Paris green, Parsons' vermin exterminator, phosphorus, prussic acid, "rough on rats", strychnia or any 7 of its salts, tartar emetic, tincture of aconite, tincture of bella- 8 donna, tincture of digitalis, tincture of nux vomica, tincture of 9 veratrum viride, or carbolic acid, without the written prescription 10 of a physician, shall affix to the bottle, box or wrapper containing 11 the article sold a label of red paper upon which shall be printed in 12 large black letters the name and place of business of the vendor and 13 the words Poison and Antidote, and the label shall also contain 14 the name of an antidote, if any, for the poison sold. He shall also 15 keep a record of the name and quantity of the article sold and of 16 the name and residence of the person or persons to whom it was 17 delivered, which shall be made before the article is delivered and 18 shall at all times be open to inspection by the officers of the district 19 20 police and by the police authorities and officers of cities and towns ; 21 but no sale of cocaine or its salts shall be made except upon the 22 prescription of a physician. Whoever neglects to affix such label 23 to such bottle, box or wrapper before delivery thereof to the pur-24 chaser or whoever neglects to keep or refuses to show to said offi-25 cers such record or whoever purchases any of said poisons and gives 26 a false or fictitious name to the vendor shall be punished by a fine 27 of not more than fifty dollars. The provisions of this section shall 28 not apply to sales by wholesale dealers or manufacturing chemists

 29 to retail dealers, or to a general merchant who sells Paris green, 30 London purple or other arsenical poisons in unbroken packages
 31 containing not less than one-quarter of a pound, for the sole purpose 32 of destroying potato bugs or other insects upon plants, vines or 33 trees, except that he shall record each sale and label each package 34 sold, as above provided.

1 SECTION 3. Whoever sells a cigarette to a person under eight-2 een years of age, or whoever sells snuff or tobacco in any of its 3 forms to a person under sixteen years of age, or, not being his 4 parent or guardian, gives a cigarette to a person under eighteen
 5 years of age, or gives snuff or tobacco in any of its forms to a 6 person under sixteen years of age, shall be punished by a fine of 7 not more than fifty dollars.

cigarettes or tobacco to minors.
1886, 72.
1891, 373.

1 SECTION 4. Whoever sells to a person under sixteen years of 2 age any candy or other article enclosing liquid or syrup containing 3 more than one per cent of alcohol shall be punished by a fine of not 4 less than fifty nor more than one hundred dollars.

— of candy containing alcohol.
1891, 333.

1 SECTION 5. Whoever knowingly feeds or has in his possession
 2 with intent to feed to a milch cow any garbage, refuse or offal
 3 collected by a city or town, or by any person having authority from 4 any city or town, by contract or otherwise, shall be punished by 5 imprisonment for not more than sixty days or by a fine of not more 6 than one hundred dollars; and whoever knowingly feeds or has in 7 his possession with intent to feed to any food animal, except swine, 8 any garbage, refuse or offal collected by a city of more than thirty 9 thousand inhabitants, by contract or otherwise, shall be punished 10 by imprisonment for not more than thirty days or by a fine of 11 not more than fifty dollars.

Feeding of garbage to animals.
1889, 326.
1895, 385.

1 SECTION 6. Whoever himself or by his agent or servant, or as 2 the agent or servant of another person, manufactures, sells or ex-
 3 changes, or has in his custody or possession with intent to sell or 4 exchange, or exposes or offers for sale or exchange, any toys or 5 confectionery, containing or coated wholly or in part with arsenic, 6 shall be punished by a fine of not less than fifty nor more than one 7 hundred dollars.

Sale of articles containing arsenic.
1891, 374, § 1.

1 SECTION 7. Whoever offers or exposes for sale or exchange any 2 paper, fabric or other article shall furnish a sample thereof sufficient
 3 for the purpose of ascertaining by analysis the existence of arsenic
 4 therein, if such sample can be obtained without damage to the re-
 5 maining portion, to any inspector, chemist or other agent or officer

1901, 188.

SECTION 8. Whoever himself or by his agent or servant manufactures, sells or exchanges, or has in his custody or possession with intent to sell or exchange, any woven fabric or paper containing arsenic in any form, or any article of dress or household use composed wholly or in part of such woven fabric or paper, shall be punished by a fine of not less than fifty nor more than two hundred dollars; but the provisions of this section shall not apply to articles intended for the destruction of insects, having the word "Poison" plainly printed in uncondensed gothic letters not less than one inch long on both sides of each sheet and square foot of the fabric, or to dress goods or articles of dress containing not more than one one-hundredth grain, or to other materials or articles containing not more than one-tenth grain of arsenic for each square yard of the material. The state board of health shall make all necessary investigations as to the existence of arsenic in the aforesaid articles and materials, employ inspectors and chemists and adopt such measures as are necessary to enforce the provisions of this section.

Coloring matter in sausages.

SECTION 9. Whoever, in the manufacture of sausages, uses any coloring matter injurious to health shall be punished by a fine of not more than one hundred dollars for each offence.

Refusal of water supply.
171 Mass. 329.

SECTION 10. A corporation which, being engaged in selling or distributing water, refuses or neglects to furnish or supply water to or for any building or premises for the reason that a water bill remains unpaid by a previous owner or occupant of said building or premises shall, unless the person applying for water is in arrears to such corporation for water previously furnished to or for said building or premises, or to or for any other building or premises, be punished by a fine of not less than ten nor more than twenty dollars.

 2 crimes mentioned in the preceding section, a ticket or share of a 3 ticket, or other writing or thing before mentioned, which the defend-4 ant has sold or offered for sale, or for which he has received a 5 valuable consideration, shall be deemed false, spurious, or fictitious,
 6 unless the defendant proves that the same was true and genuine,
 7 duly issued by the authority of some legislature within the United 8 States, that such lottery was existing and undrawn and that such 9 ticket or share thereof, or other writing or thing before mentioned, 10 was issued by lawful authority and is binding upon the person who 11 issued the same.

 3 be disposed of by any chance or device under the pretext mentioned 4 in section seven, by an inhabitant of or resident within this com-
 5 monwealth, and all money or any other thing of value received by 6 such person by reason of his being the owner or holder of a ticket
 7 or share of a ticket in a lottery or pretended lottery, or of a share 8 or right in any such scheme of chance or such device, contrary to 9 the provisions of this chapter, shall be forfeited, and may be re-10 covered by an information filed or by an action for money had and upon the result of a trial or contest of skill, speed or endurance of 4 man, beast, bird or machine, or upon the result of a game, com- 5 petition, political nomination, appointment or election, or whoever 6 is present in such place engaged in such business or employment ; 7 or, being such keeper, occupant or person present, as aforesaid, 8 registers such bets, or buys or sells such pools, or is concerned in 9 buying or selling the same ; or, being the owner, lessee or occu- 10 pant of a building or room, or part thereof, or private grounds, 11 knowingly permits the same to be used or occupied for any such 12 purpose ; or therein keeps, exhibits, uses or employs, or know- 13 ingly permits to be therein kept, exhibited, used or employed, any 14 device or apparatus for registering such bets, or for buying or sell- 15 ing such pools, shall be punished by a fine of not more than two 16 thousand dollars or by imprisonment for not more than one year. 17

And whoever becomes the custodian or depositary for hire, reward, 18 commission or compensation in any manner, of any pools, money, 19 property or thing of value, in any manner staked or bet upon 20 such result, shall be punished in like manner. 21 prohibited.

1892, 409, § 1.
1895, 419, § 7.

SECTION 18. Whoever keeps, sets up, promotes or is concerned 1 as owner, agent, clerk or in any other manner, in managing a policy 2 lottery or policy shop, or writes, prints, sells, transfers or delivers 3 a ticket, certificate, slip, bill, token or other device, purporting or 4 designed to guarantee or assure to a person, or to entitle him to a 5 chance of drawing or obtaining a prize or thing of value in a lottery 6 or in the game or device commonly known as policy lottery or 7 policy, whether drawn or determined, or remaining to be drawn or 8 determined, or who receives from a person any money or other 9 thing of value for such article or chance ; or for himself or another 10 writes, prints, sells, transfers or delivers or has in his possession 11 for the purpose of sale, transfer or delivery, or in any way aids in 12 selling, exchanging, negotiating, transferring or delivering a chance 13 or ticket in a lottery, or in the game or device commonly known 14 as policy lottery or policy, whether drawn or to be drawn, or any 15 such bill, slip, certificate, token or other device, shall be punished 16 by a fine of not more than five hundred dollars or by imprisonment 17 for not more than one year. 18

etc., of tickets evidence.
1892, 409, § 2.
1895, 419, § 8.

SECTION 19. The printing, writing, advertising, issuing or 1 delivery of any ticket, paper, document or other article or material 2 representing or purporting to represent the existence of or any 3 chance or interest in any lottery, policy lottery or policy game, 4 pool or pools, registered or other bet or other game or hazard, 5 whether drawn or determined, or remaining to be drawn or deter- 6 mined, or the receiving of money or other thing of value for such 7 article or chance, shall be prima facie evidence of the existence, 8 location and drawing of such lottery, policy lottery or policy game 9 and of the act or event upon which such pool or pools, bet, game 10 or hazard, depends or may depend, and of the unlawful character 11 of such lottery, policy lottery, pool, bet, game or hazard, and the 12 issuing or delivery of such ticket, paper, document or other article 13 or material shall be prima facie evidence of value received therefor 14 by the person, company or corporation issuing or delivering the 15

16 same, or aiding or abetting therein, and that such person, company 17 or corporation is concerned in keeping, managing or promoting 18 such lottery, pool, bet, game or hazard.

1 SECTION 20. All lottery, policy or pool tickets, slips or checks,
 2 memoranda of any combination or other bet, manifold or other
 3 policy or pool books or sheets, are hereby declared a common
 4 nuisance and the possession thereof unlawful; and the possession
 5 of any such article, or of any other implements, apparatus or 6 materials of any other form of gaming, shall be prima facie evidence
 7 of their use, by the person having them in possession, in the form 8 of gaming in which like articles are commonly used. Any such 9 article found upon the person of one who is lawfully arrested for 10 violation of any law relative to lotteries, policy lotteries or policy, 11 the buying or selling of pools or registering of bets or other form
 12 of gaming shall be competent evidence upon the trial of a complaint
 13 or indictment to which it may be relevant. If a person so arrested 14 in a building or structure or part thereof conceals or attempts to 15 conceal such articles upon his person or elsewhere, the possession 16 and concealment or attempt at concealment thereof shall be prima 17 facie evidence that the place in which the same occurs is kept, 18 maintained, used or occupied for the form of gaming in which like 19 articles are commonly used.

1 SECTION 21. In a prosecution or proceeding under any law rela-
 2 tive to lotteries, policy lotteries or policy, buying and selling pools
 3 or registered bets, any words, figures or characters, written, printed 4 or exposed upon a blackboard, placard or otherwise, in a place alleged 5 to be used or occupied for such business, purporting or appearing 6 to be a name or names of horses or jockeys, or a description of or 7 reference to a trial or contest of skill, speed or endurance of man,
 8 beast, bird or machine, or game, competition, political nomination,
 9 appointment or election, or other act or event, or any odds, bet, 10 combination bet or other stake or wager, or any code, cipher or 11 substitute therefor, shall be prima facie evidence of the existence 12 of the race, game, contest or other act or event so purporting or 13 appearing to be referred to, and that such place is kept or occupied 14 for gaming; and in all cases the same may be proved by a copy or 15 by oral description thereof.

 1895, 419, § 4.

1 SECTION 22. Whoever receives a letter, package or parcel for 2 delivery or transportation to or from a person, or delivers or trans-
 3 ports the same to or from a person, having reasonable cause to 4 believe that such person is engaged or in any way concerned in the 5 management or promotion of or agency for a lottery, or the game
 6 known as policy lottery or policy, or the buying or selling of pools 7 or registering of bets, or other form of gaming, and that such 8 letter, package or parcel has relation to such business, shall be 9 punished by fine of not less than fifty nor more than five hundred 10 dollars; but the provisions of this section shall not apply to the 11 receipt, carriage or delivery of United States mail matter by an 12 officer or employee thereof.

cause to suspect that a house or other building, room or place is unlawfully used as and for a common gaming house, for the purpose of gaming for money or other property, or is occupied, used or kept for promoting a lottery, or for the sale of lottery tickets, or for promoting the game known as policy lottery or policy, or for the buying or selling of pools or registering of bets upon any race, game, contest, act or event, and that persons resort to the same for any such purpose, such court or trial justice, whether the names of the persons last mentioned are known to the complainant or not, shall, in case satisfactory evidence is presented, issue a warrant commanding the sheriff or his deputy or any constable or police officer to enter such house, building, room or place, and to arrest the keepers thereof, all persons in any way assisting in keeping the same, whether as janitor, doorkeeper, watchman or otherwise, all persons who are there found participating in any form of gaming and all persons present whether so participating or not, if any lottery, policy or pool tickets, slips, checks, manifold books or sheets, memoranda of any bet, or other implements, apparatus or materials of any form of gaming are found in said place, and to take into their custody all the implements, apparatus or materials of gaming, as aforesaid, and all the personal property, furniture and fixtures there found, and to keep said persons, implements, apparatus or materials, property, furniture and fixtures so that they may be forthcoming before some court or magistrate to be dealt with according to law. All articles and property seized under the provisions of this section shall be disposed of as provided in sections three to eight, inclusive, of chapter two hundred and seventeen relative to articles seized under clause eleven of section one of said chapter.

Exemption
from penalties
of chapter.
1895, 419, § 9.

SECTION 24. The provisions of this chapter shall not authorize the arrest or conviction of a person who is the owner or proprietor of a race track or trotting course for the reason that a person other than himself has without his knowledge or consent violated any of said provisions relative to the buying and selling of pools or the registering or making of bets or to any offence mentioned in the preceding section; nor the arrest or conviction of a person for being present on a race track or trotting course where pools are sold or bets registered or made on trials of speed or endurance between horses or other animals; but this exception shall not apply to a person in any way participating or assisting in the buying or selling of pools or registering of bets.

Obstructions in gaming houses.
1887, 448, § 1.
1892, 388, § 1.

SECTION 25. If a captain of police in the city of Boston or marshal or chief of police in any other city or town in the commonwealth finds that access to any building, apartment or place which he has reasonable cause to believe is resorted to for the purpose of unlawful gaming is barred by any obstruction, such as a door, window, shutter, screen, bar or grating of unusual strength, other than what is usual in ordinary places of business, or any unnecessary number of doors, windows or obstructions, he shall order the same to be removed by the owner or agent of the building in which such obstruction exists, and if such captain of police or marshal or chief of police cannot find either of the persons mentioned, so as to make personal service, said notice shall be posted upon the outside

13 of the apartments and on the outside of said building, and upon the 14 neglect to remove such obstruction for seven days from the date of 15 said order or posting of said notices, the captain of police, marshal 16 or chief of police shall cause such obstruction to be removed from 17 such building, and the expense of such removal shall be a lien on 18 said building and be collected by the captain of police or marshal 19 or chief of police removing such obstruction, in the manner in 20 which a mechanic's lien is collected.

1 SECTION 26. If, within one year after removal of said obstruc-
2 tion, the premises are again obstructed as above defined, the captain 3 of police or marshal or chief of police shall have the same power of 4 removal as provided in the preceding section and in addition the 5 owner or agent at the time such second order of removal is given,
6 either by personal service or by posting on the building, shall be 7 liable to a fine of not less than two hundred and fifty nor more than 8 five hundred dollars, and the amount of said fine shall be a lien upon 9 said building and be collected by the captain of police, marshal or 10 chief of police in the manner in which a mechanic's lien is collected.
11 And for every subsequent obstruction as above defined, at any time 12 within two years of the giving of the second notice, as above pro-13 vided, the captain of police, marshal or chief of police shall have 14 the same powers as provided in the preceding section for removing 15 the obstructions, and the owner or agent at the time such third or 16 subsequent order of removal is given, either by personal service or 17 by posting on the building, shall be liable to a fine of not less than 18 five hundred nor more than one thousand dollars or may be pun-
19 ished by imprisonment for one year, and the amount of said fine 20 shall be a lien upon the said building and shall be collected by the 21 captain of police or marshal or chief of police in the manner in 22 which a mechanic's lien is collected. Obstructions as above defined 23 which shall be erected more than two years after the giving of the 24 notice of the third offence, as above provided, shall be construed to 25 be a first offence under the provisions of this section.

Penalty for 1892, 388, § 1.

1 SECTION 27. Any court or magistrate having criminal jurisdic-
2 tion may take judicial notice of the general methods and character
3 of lotteries, policy lotteries or the game called policy, pools or 4 combination bets, and the buying and selling of pools and register-
5 ing of bets. In the trial of a complaint or indictment to which it
6 may be relevant, any lottery, policy or pool ticket, certificate, slip 7 or check, manifold or other policy or pool book or sheet, or memo-
8 randum of any pool or sale of pools, or of a bet or odds, or combi-
9 nation bet, or any other implement, apparatus, materials or articles 10 of a character commonly employed in or in connection with lotteries, 11 policy lotteries or policy, the buying or selling of pools or register-
12 ing of bets, or other form of gaming, shall be prima facie evidence 13 of the existence and unlawful character of a lottery, policy lottery
14 or game, pool or pools, bet, game or hazard, or other form of gaming 15 in which like articles are commonly used, and that such article has 16 relation thereto.

policy lotteries or policy, the selling of pools or registering of bets, or any form of gaming; but the defendant may be arraigned and tried and, if convicted, sentenced and punished under any name by which he is complained of or indicted. No such complaint or indictment shall be abated, quashed or held insufficient by reason of any alleged defect, either of form or substance, if the same is sufficient to enable the defendant to understand the charge and to prepare his defence. No variance between such complaint or indictment and the evidence shall be deemed material, unless in some matter of substance essential to the charge under the rule above-prescribed.

SECTION 32. No land within a city or town shall be laid out or used as a race ground or trotting park without the previous consent of and location by the mayor and aldermen or selectmen, who may regulate and alter the terms and conditions under which the same

5 shall be laid out, used or continued in use and may discontinue 6 the same when in their judgment the public good so requires; and 7 no land shall be used for any of the purposes declared unlawful in 8 section thirty.

1 SECTION 33. Every race ground or trotting park which is estab-
2 lished, laid out, used or continued in use contrary to the provisions
3 of this chapter is declared a common nuisance, and shall be abated 4 as such; and all persons owning, keeping, using, or permitting to

1 SECTION 3. Whoever counsels, hires or otherwise procures a 2 felony to be committed may be indicted and convicted as an acces-
3 sory before the fact, either with the principal felon or after his con-
4 viction; or may be indicted and convicted of a substantive felony, 5 whether the principal felon has or has not been convicted, or is or 6 is not amenable to justice; and in the last-mentioned case may be 7 punished in the same manner as if convicted of being an accessory 8 before the fact. An accessory to a felony before the fact may be 9 indicted, tried and punished in the same county in which the prin-10 cipal felon might be indicted and tried, although the counselling, 11 hiring or procuring the commission of such felony was committed 12 within or without this commonwealth or on the high seas.

CHAPTER 216.

OF PROCEEDINGS TO PREVENT THE COMMISSION OF CRIMES.

1 SECTION 1. The justices of the supreme judicial court, of the 2 superior court, of police, district and municipal courts and trial
3 justices may cause all laws made for the preservation of the public
4 peace to be kept; and in the execution of that power may require 5 persons to give security to keep the peace, or for their good be-6 havior, or both, as provided in this chapter.

Justices authorized to keep the peace.
R. S. 134, § 1.
G. S. 169, § 1.
P. S. 211, § 1.
2 Allen, 61.

1 SECTION 2. If complaint is made to any such justice that a 2 person has threatened to commit a crime against the person or 3 property of another, he shall examine the complainant and any 4 witnesses who may be produced, on oath, reduce the complaint to 5 writing and cause it to be subscribed by the complainant.

Complaint of threat to commit crime.
R. S. 134, § 2.
G. S. 169, § 2.
P. S. 211, § 2.

1 SECTION 3. If, upon examination, the justice finds that there
2 is just cause to fear that such crime may be committed, he shall 3 issue a warrant under his hand, reciting the substance of the com-4 plaint, and requiring the officer to whom it is directed forthwith to 5 apprehend the person complained of and take him before such 6 justice or some other justice or court having jurisdiction of the 7 cause.

1 SECTION 4. If the person complained of is convicted, he may 2 be punished by a fine of not more than one hundred dollars or by 3 imprisonment for not more than six months. He shall have the 4 same right of appeal as in other criminal cases, and the provisions 5 of section twenty-seven of chapter two hundred and nineteen shall 6 apply to such appeals. Instead of imposing sentence, the court or justice may order the person complained of to enter into a recognizance, with sufficient sureties, in such sum as the court or justice orders, to keep the peace toward all the people of the commonwealth and especially toward the person requiring such security, for such term, not exceeding six months, as the court or justice may order. The court or justice may at any time, for good cause, revoke such order or reduce the amount of the recognizance, or order that it be taken without surety.

Commitment
on failure to recognize, etc.
1833, 63, § 1.
R. S. 134, §§ 5, 6.
G. S. 169, § 5.
P. S. 211, § 5.
1894, 505, § 2.

SECTION 5. If the person complained of so recognizes, he shall be discharged, but if he refuses or neglects so to recognize, the court or justice shall commit him to the jail or house of correction during the period for which he was required to give security, or until within that time he so recognizes, stating in the warrant the cause of commitment and the sum and time for which security was required.

Complainant,
when to pay expenses.
R. S. 134, § 7.
G. S. 169, § 6.
P. S. 211, § 6.

SECTION 6. If, upon examination, the court or justice finds that there is not just cause to fear that such crime will be committed by the person complained of, he shall be forthwith discharged; and if the court or justice finds that the complaint is unfounded, frivolous or malicious, it or he may order the complainant to pay the expenses of prosecution and he shall thereupon be answerable to the magistrate and the officer for their fees, as for his own debt.

Payment of

1834, 151, § 4.
R. S. 134, § 8.
G. S. 169, § 7.
P. S. 211, § 7.

SECTION 7. If a person is required to give security to keep the peace or for his good behavior, the court or justice may order him to pay the expenses of prosecution, or any part thereof, and that he shall stand committed until they are paid or he is otherwise legally discharged.

Appeal.
1833, 63, § 1.
R. S. 134, § 9.
1852, 14.
G. S. 169, § 8.
P. S. 211, § 8.

SECTION 8. Whoever is aggrieved by an order of a police, district or municipal court or trial justice, requiring him to recognize as aforesaid, may, upon giving the security required, appeal to the superior court, such appeal to be entered on the next return day.

Witnesses to recognize.
R. S. 134, § 10.
G. S. 169, § 9.
P. S. 211, § 9.

SECTION 9. The court or justice shall require such witnesses as may be necessary to support the complaint to recognize for their appearance at the superior court.

Proceedings
on appeal.
R. S. 134, § 11.
G. S. 169, § 10.
P. S. 211, § 10.

SECTION 10. The superior court may affirm the order or discharge the appellant, or may require him to enter into a new recognizance, with sufficient sureties, in such sum and for such time as it may order, and may make such order relative to the expenses of prosecution as is just and reasonable.

Recognizance
to remain in force if appeal is not prosecuted.
R. S. 134, § 12.
G. S. 169, § 11.
P. S. 211, § 11.

SECTION 11. If the appellant fails to prosecute his appeal, his recognizance shall remain in full force and effect as to any breach of the condition, without an affirmation of the judgment or order of the court or justice, and shall also stand as a security for any

5 expenses of prosecution which the superior court orders to be paid 6 by the appellant.

1 SECTION 12. A person who has been committed for not finding 2 sureties, or for refusing to recognize as required by the court or 3 justice, may be discharged upon giving the security which was 4 required. Discharge from commitment upon recognizing.
R. S. 134, § 13.
G. S. 169, § 12. P. S. 211, § 12.

1 SECTION 13. The recognizance taken pursuant to the fore-
2 going provisions shall be transmitted to the superior court on or 3 before the next return day, and shall be there filed of record by the 4 clerk; and upon a breach of the condition an action shall be com-
5 menced thereon by the district attorney. Recognizance to be transmitted to superior court.

1852, 14.
G. S. 169, § 13.
P. S. 211, § 13.

1 SECTION 14. Whoever, in the presence of a justice named in 2 section one or before a court of record, makes an affray, or 3 threatens to kill or beat another, or to commit any violence or out-4 rage against the person or property of another, and whoever in the 5 presence of such court or magistrate contends with hot and angry
6 words, to the disturbance of the peace, may be ordered, without 7 process or any other proof, to recognize to keep the peace or be of 8 good behavior for not more than three months, and in case of re-9 fusai may be committed as provided in section five. — when to be required on view of court or justice.

1 SECTION 15. Whoever goes armed with a dirk, dagger, sword,
2 pistol or other offensive and dangerous weapon, without reasonable 3 cause to fear an assault or other injury or violence to his person, or 4 to his family or property, may, upon complaint of a person who has 5 reasonable cause to fear an injury or breach of the peace, be required
6 to find sureties for keeping the peace for not more than six months,
7 with the right of appeal as before provided. Persons who go armed to find sureties for the peace, etc.

R. S. 134, § 17.
G. S. 169, § 16.
P. S. 211, § 16.

1 SECTION 17. A surety in a recognizance to keep the peace, or 2 for good behavior, or both, shall have the same authority and right
3 to take and surrender his principal as if he were bail for him in a 4 civil cause; and after such surrender shall be discharged and ex-5 empt from all liability for any act of the principal subsequent to 6 such surrender which would be a breach of the condition of the 7 recognizance. The person so surrendered may recognize anew with 8 sufficient sureties for the residue of the term, and shall thereupon 9 be discharged. Surrender of principal by surety.

1 SECTION 3. If an officer in the execution of a search warrant
 2 finds property or articles therein described, he shall seize and safely
 3 keep them under the direction of the court or trial justice, so long 4 as is necessary for the purpose of being produced or used as evi-
 5 dence on any trial. As soon as may be afterward, all property
 6 seized under the provisions of clauses one and two of section one 7 shall be restored to the owner thereof; property seized under the 8 provisions of clause three of said section shall be disposed of as 9 the court orders; property or other articles seized under the pro-10 visions of clause six of said section shall, if upon a hearing the 11 court or magistrate finds that they were so kept or concealed, be 12 destroyed or disposed of in accordance with the provisions of 13 section seventy of chapter fifty-six by the board of health or by 14 an officer designated by the court or magistrate; otherwise, they 15 shall be returned to the owner; diseased animals seized under the 16 provisions of clause seven of said section one shall, if upon a hear-17 ing the court or magistrate finds that they were kept or concealed in 18 a particular building, place or enclosure, be destroyed or disposed 19 of by the board of cattle commissioners, without compensation to 20 the owners thereof; otherwise, they shall be returned to their own-21 ners; and all other articles seized by virtue of such warrants shall shall, unless otherwise expressly provided, issue a notice in writing under seal, signed by the clerk of the court or by the justice, setting forth the substance of the complaint, and commanding the persons, if any, in whose possession the articles were found, and the owner, if alleged, and all other persons who claim an interest therein, to appear at a time and place therein named to show cause why the articles seized should not be forfeited.

Service of notice.

1870, 242, § 3.
P. S. 212, § 7.
1894, 410, § 1.

SECTION 5. The notice shall, not less than fourteen days before the time appointed for trial, be served upon the person, if any, who is alleged to be the owner of the articles seized, by an officer authorized to serve criminal process, by leaving an attested copy thereof with him personally or at his usual place of abode and by posting an attested copy thereof on the house or building in which the articles were seized, if they were found in a house or building; otherwise, in a public place in the city or town in which they were seized.

Postponement of trial.

1870, 242, § 4.
P. S. 212, § 8.
1894, 410, § 1.

SECTION 6. If, at the time appointed for the trial, such notice has not been duly served, or if it appears necessary that any of the articles so seized should be kept longer for the purpose of being produced or used as evidence on any trial, or if other sufficient cause appears, the trial may be postponed to another day and place and further notice issued.

SECTION 7. If, upon the trial, the property is adjudged forfeited, the type, forms, press, wood cuts, raw material and mechanical apparatus described in clause eight of section one, the dies, plates, brands, moulds, engravings, printing presses, types or other tools, machines or materials described in clause five of said section, the raw materials, tools, machinery, implements, instruments and personal property described in clause nine of said section and all furniture, fixtures and personal property described in clause eleven of said section, or so much thereof as the court or justice may order, shall be sold by the sheriff and the proceeds shall be paid into the county treasury, and the remainder of the property shall be destroyed as the court or justice may order. Any article which is not found to have been unlawfully used or intended for unlawful use shall be delivered to the owner.

Appeal to superior court.

1870, 242, § 1.
P. S. 212, § 10.
1894, 410, § 1.

SECTION 8. A person who is aggrieved by a decree of forfeiture of a police, district or municipal court or trial justice may appeal therefrom to the superior court; but before his appeal is allowed, he shall recognize to the commonwealth in the sum of two hundred dollars, with sufficient surety or sureties, to prosecute his appeal and to pay all such expenses as may thereafter arise, if final judgment is rendered against the articles adjudged forfeited, and to abide the judgment of the superior court thereon; and upon such appeal, any question of fact shall be tried by a jury. All the proceedings in the superior court, including the right of exception, shall conform, so far as may be, to proceedings in criminal cases; and if, upon the final judgment, the articles are adjudged forfeited, they shall be disposed of under the direction of the superior court as they might have been disposed of had no appeal been taken.

REWARDS FOR APPREHENDING OFFENDERS.

1 SECTION 9. The governor, if in his opinion the public good
 2 so requires, may offer a suitable reward of not more than one
 3 thousand dollars in any one case to be paid by the commonwealth
 4 to any person who, in consequence of such offer, apprehends,
 5 brings back and secures a person who is convicted of or charged 6 with a felony, who has escaped from prison in this commonwealth, 7 or to any person who in consequence of such offer apprehends and 8 secures a person charged with such crime, if the person cannot be 9 arrested and secured in the common course of proceeding.

Governor may

1 SECTION 10. The mayor and aldermen of a city or the select-2 men of a town, if in their opinion the public good so requires,
 3 may offer a suitable reward of not more than five hundred dollars
 4 in any one case to be paid by such city or town to any person
 5 who, in consequence of such offer, detects or secures a person who 6 has committed a felony in such place, either before or after he has 7 been charged therewith, and such reward shall be paid by the treas-
 8 urer upon the warrant of the mayor and aldermen or selectmen.
 9 If more than one claimant applies for the payment of such reward,
 10 the mayor and aldermen or selectmen shall determine to whom it
 11 shall be paid, and if to more than one person, in what proportion 12 to each; and their determination shall be final.

FUGITIVES FROM JUSTICE.

1 SECTION 11. The governor, in any case which is authorized by 2 the constitution and laws of the United States, may, upon demand,
 3 deliver to the executive of any other state or territory any person
 4 charged therein with treason, felony or other crime; or may, upon 5 application, appoint an agent to demand of the executive authority 6 of any other state or territory any such offender fleeing from the 7 justice of this commonwealth. Such demand or application shall be 8 accompanied by sworn evidence that the person charged is a fugitive 9 from justice and by a duly attested copy of an indictment or com-10 plaint made before a court or magistrate authorized to receive it.
 11 Such complaint shall be accompanied by affidavits to the facts con-
 12 stituting the crime charged by persons who have actual knowledge 13 thereof, and by such further evidence as the governor may require.

G. S. 177, §§ 4, 5.
P. S. 218, §§ 4, 5.

SECTION 14. A person who is arrested upon such warrant shall not be delivered to such agent of a state or territory until he has been notified of the demand for his surrender and has had an opportunity to apply for a writ of habeas corpus, if he claims such right of the officer who makes the arrest. If such writ is applied for, notice thereof and of the time and place of hearing shall be given to the attorney general or district attorney for the district in which the arrest is made. An officer who delivers a person in his custody upon such warrant to such agent for extradition without having complied with the provisions of this section shall forfeit not more than one thousand dollars.

SECTION 16. If a person who is found in this commonwealth is charged with a crime committed in another state or territory and is liable by the constitution and laws of the United States to be delivered upon the demand of the executive of such other state or territory, a court or magistrate authorized to issue warrants in criminal cases may, upon complaint under oath setting forth the crime and such other matters as are necessary to bring the case within the provisions of law, issue a warrant to bring the person charged before the same or another court or magistrate within the commonwealth to answer to such complaint as in other cases.

Recognizance.
R. S. 142, § 8.
G. S. 177, § 8.
P. S. 218, § 8.

SECTION 17. If, upon examination of the person charged, the court or magistrate has reasonable cause to believe that the complaint is true and that such person may be lawfully demanded of the executive, he shall, if not charged with a capital crime, be required to recognize with sufficient sureties in a reasonable sum to appear before such court or magistrate at a day appointed, allowing a reasonable time to obtain the warrant of the executive, and to abide the order of the court or magistrate.

Commitment on failure to recognize.
R. S. 142, § 9.
G. S. 177, § 9.
P. S. 218, § 9.

SECTION 18. If he does not so recognize, he shall be committed to jail until such day, as if the crime charged had been committed within the commonwealth; and if he fails to appear according to the condition of his recognizance, he shall be defaulted and like proceedings shall be had as in case of other recognizances entered into before such court or magistrate. If he is charged with a 7 capital crime, he shall be committed to jail until the day so ap-8 pointed for his appearance.

1 SECTION 19. If the person so recognized or committed appears
2 before the court or magistrate upon the day appointed, he shall be 3 discharged unless he is demanded by a person authorized by the 4 warrant of the executive to receive him, or unless the court or 5 magistrate has cause to commit him or to require him to recognize 6 anew for his appearance on another day, and if, when ordered, he 7 does not so recognize, he shall be committed and detained as before.
8 If the person charged has recognized or is committed or discharged, 9 a person authorized by the warrant of the executive may at any 10 time take him into custody and the same shall be a discharge of 11 the recognizance and not be an escape.

Proceedings
and discharge.
R. S. 142, § 10.
G. S. 174, § 10.
P. S. 218, § 10.

1 SECTION 20. The complainant in such case shall be answerable
2 for all actual costs and charges and for the support in jail of a 3 person so committed, which shall be paid as by a creditor for his 4 debtor committed on execution. If the charge for support in jail
5 is not so paid, the jailer may discharge him as if he had been com-6 mitted on execution.

1 SECTION 22. Upon complaint made to any such justice that a 2 crime has been committed, he shall examine the complainant and 3 any witnesses produced by him, under oath, reduce the complaint
4 to writing and cause it to be subscribed by the complainant, and, if 5 it appears that a crime has been committed, he shall, except as 6 provided in the five following sections, issue a warrant, reciting the 7 substance of the accusation and requiring the officer to whom it is 8 directed forthwith to arrest the accused and to take him before 9 a court or trial justice of the county to be dealt with according to 10 law, and to summon such witnesses as shall be therein named to 11 appear and give evidence on the examination.

1881, 127, § 3.
P. S. 212, § 18.

SECTION 26. If a defendant so summoned fails, without a reasonable cause, to appear and abide the orders of the court or magistrate, he shall be considered in contempt of court, and may be punished by a fine of not more than twenty dollars. A warrant may be issued at any time after the issue of such summons, if necessary, whether the summons has been served or not.

Recognizance.
1881, 127, § 4.
P. S. 212, § 19.

SECTION 27. If a defendant so summoned duly appears, he may be ordered to recognize for his further appearance, but he shall not be required to give surety upon his recognizance at any stage of the prosecution without a special order.

1 SECTION 33. A person who is arrested by warrant for a crime
 2 shall, unless other provision is made for his examination, be taken
 3 before a court or trial justice having jurisdiction where the crime
 4 was committed: and the warrant, with a proper return thereon
 5 signed by the person who made the arrest, shall be delivered to 6 the court or justice.

P. S. 212, § 25.

1 SECTION 34. The court or justice may adjourn an examination
 2 or trial from time to time, not exceeding ten days at any one
 3 time without the consent of the defendant, and to the same or a 4 different place in the county. In the mean time, if the defendant is 5 charged with a crime not bailable, he shall be committed: other-6 wise, he may be recognized in a sum and with sureties to the satis-
 7 faction of the court or justice, for his appearance for such further 8 examination, and for want of such recognizance he shall be com-9 mitted.

 2 condition of his recognizance, his default shall be recorded, but 3 may be taken off for good cause at any time to which the case may 4 be continued. If such default is not taken off, the recognizance
 5 shall be certified with a record of such default to the superior court, 6 and like proceedings shall be had thereon as upon a breach of the 7 condition of a recognizance for appearance before said superior
 8 court.

1 SECTION 37. The court or justice before whom a person is taken
 2 upon a charge of crime shall, as soon as may be, examine the com-
 3 plainant and the witnesses for the prosecution under oath in the 4 presence of the defendant, relative to any material matter con-5 nected with such charge. After the testimony to support the 6 prosecution, the witnesses for the prisoner, if he has any, shall be 7 examined under oath, and he may be assisted by counsel in such 8 examination and in the cross examination of the witnesses in sup-9 port of the prosecution.

SECTION 47. If a minor is a material witness, any other person may be allowed to recognize for his appearance; or, in the discretion of the court or justice, he may recognize in a sum not exceeding fifty dollars, which shall be valid and binding in law notwithstanding his minority. 1 2 3 4 5 of witness.

R. S. 135, § 21.

SECTION 48. A witness who, when required, refuses to recognize, either with or without sureties, shall, except as provided in 1 2

3 the following section, be committed to jail until he complies with 4 such order or is otherwise discharged according to law; but if the 5 magistrate finds that the witness, unless he is the prosecutor or an 6 accomplice, is unable to procure sureties when so ordered, he shall,
 7 except in cases of felony, be discharged upon his own recognizance.
 8 Upon a complaint or indictment for a felony, against a defendant 9 who is not in custody, a material witness who is committed for 10 failure to furnish sureties upon his own recognizance may be held 11 in custody for a reasonable time, pending the pursuit and appre-
 12 hension of the defendant.

1 SECTION 49. A magistrate may, with the consent of the de-
 2 fendant, take or cause to be taken by a magistrate authorized to 3 take depositions in civil cases, in manner and form as provided in 4 civil cases, the deposition of a witness whom he finds to be unable 5 to furnish sureties upon his recognizance as ordered and who is not 6 the prosecutor or an accomplice; and thereupon the witness shall 7 be discharged. The attorney for the commonwealth who will have 8 charge of the case at the trial shall have the same notice as parties 9 in civil actions of the time and place of taking the deposition, and 10 the assent of the defendant shall be indorsed upon the deposition.
 11 The fees shall be the same as in civil cases and shall be paid as 12 other expenses in criminal cases are paid. The deposition shall 13 be seasonably transmitted to the court at which the witness was 14 ordered to appear. If the witness is unable to attend the trial, by 15 reason of his absence from the commonwealth, so that he cannot be 16 compelled to attend by subpoena or attachment, or of his death, 17 insanity, illness or infirmity, the deposition may be read in evi-18 dence upon the trial by either party, subject to all legal objections.

1 SECTION 50. If a witness has been committed because of his
 2 inability to furnish sureties for his appearance before the superior 3 court, the jailer shall forthwith give notice to the chief justice of 4 the superior court, who shall direct the district attorney to inquire
 5 as to the importance of his testimony and the necessity for detaining
 6 him in jail, and the district attorney, if, in his opinion, the public
 7 interest will not suffer by the release of the witness on his own
 8 recognizance, shall so report to the chief justice, who may thereupon 9 order the witness to be released upon his own recognizance.

 1894, 406, § 1.

1 SECTION 51. The prison commissioners shall from time to time
 2 make such rules relative to the diet, size of cells, amount of 3 liberty and exercise, correspondence, visits and such other matters
 4 as they consider necessary regulating the treatment of witnesses
 5 held in jail as will secure their clear distinction and separation from 6 other prisoners as far as possible, consistent with their safe custody
 7 and the prevention of tampering with their testimony. Said com-
 8 missioners may, with the approval of the district attorney, remove 9 such witnesses from the jail in which they are confined to a jail in 10 another county, and shall, at the request of the district attorney, 11 cause them to be returned to the jail whence they were removed.
 12 The proceedings upon such removal shall be the same as are pro-13 vided for the removal of prisoners from one jail or house of correc-14 tion to another. The cost of support of a witness so removed and 12 court.

1 SECTION 57. If the person is committed without an order fixing
2 the amount of the recognizance, he shall not be admitted to bail
3 under the provisions of the preceding section until reasonable 4 notice of his application has been given to the officer by whom he 5 was committed, or a hearing has been given to the officer in whose 6 custody he is held; and if committed with such order, he shall not 7 be admitted to bail, except by a justice of the supreme judicial 8 court or of the superior court, for a less amount than is required by 9 the order.

1 SECTION 58. After a conviction or a plea of guilty or of nolo
2 contendere in the superior court in the county of Suffolk, the 3 prisoner shall not be admitted to bail except in open court; but 4 when said court is not in session, bail may be taken by any judge
5 of a court of record or by any commissioner appointed by the 6 justices of the superior court, upon proof that written notice of 7 the proposed application has been duly served upon the district
8 attorney or one of the assistant district attorneys for the Suffolk
9 district at least twenty-four hours before the hearing of such appli-10 cation, specifying the name of the prisoner, the crime of which 11 he has been convicted, the time and place of hearing and the name, 12 occupation and residence of the proposed sureties. No person who 13 has been once offered and rejected as surety shall afterward be 14 accepted as surety for the same person in the same case.

SECTION 69. If a person who is under recognizance to appear and answer or to prosecute an appeal in a criminal case fails to appear for that purpose according to the condition of his recognizance, and if a person under recognizance to testify in a criminal prosecution fails to perform the condition of his recognizance, his default may be recorded, his obligation and that of his sureties

7 shall be forfeited and process shall be issued against them or such 8 of them as the prosecuting officer directs ; but in such suit no costs 9 shall be taxed for travel.

1 SECTION 70. A surety in such recognizance may, by leave of 2 the court, after default, and either before or after process has been 3 issued against him, pay to the county treasurer or clerk of the 4 court the amount for which he was bound as surety, with such costs
5 as the court shall direct, and shall be thereupon forever discharged.

1 SECTION 71. If, upon suit brought on a recognizance to prose-
2 cute an appeal, the penalty is adjudged to be forfeited, or if by 3 leave of court such penalty has been paid to the county treasurer
4 or the clerk of the court without a suit or before judgment, as 5 provided in the preceding section, and any forfeiture accrues by 6 law to a person by reason of the crime of which the appellant was 7 convicted, the court may award to him the portion of the amount 8 paid to which he is entitled.

1 SECTION 73. Such action shall not be barred or defeated, nor 2 shall judgment be arrested, by reason of neglect or omission to 3 note or record the default of any principal or surety at the time 4 when it happens, nor by reason of a defect in the form of the 5 recognizance, if it sufficiently appears from the tenor thereof at 6 what court the party or witness was bound to appear, and that the 7 court or magistrate before whom it was taken was authorized by 8 law to require and take such recognizance.

1 SECTION 74. A court which has rendered judgment on a re-
2 cognizance the penalty of which is forfeited may, upon the petition
3 of any person interested, stating the ground relied upon and filed
4 in the county in which the judgment was rendered, grant a review
5 and a rehearing of the case, upon the surrender or recaption of the 6 prisoner who was released, or for any sufficient cause which has 7 occurred or been ascertained by the person interested after the 8 rendition of such judgment, or at such time as not to have afforded 9 opportunity for presenting the same in evidence.

judgment and orders the judgment to be reversed or entered for a less amount than has been so actually paid, it may order the amount of the difference between the payment and the new judgment to be paid back to the person who made the payment or to his legal representatives. The treasurer or other officer of the county who received or then has the amount paid shall, upon presentation of a copy of the order certified by the clerk of the court, make said repayment. If, upon such petition, the review is not granted or the original judgment is not altered, the court may award reasonable costs against the petitioner.

172 Mass. 427.

SECTION 77. If a person who is arrested on criminal process has been ordered to recognize with surety or sureties for his appearance before any court or trial justice, he may, instead of giving surety or sureties, at any time give his personal recognizance, and deposit the amount of the bail which he is ordered to furnish with the court, trial justice or magistrate authorized by law to take such recognizance who shall give him a certificate thereof, and upon delivering said certificate to the officer in whose custody he is, he shall be released. The court, trial justice or magistrate shall forthwith, upon the receipt of such amount, deposit it with the clerk of the court or with the trial justice before whom such person was recognized to appear, or if such court has no clerk, shall deposit it with the justice thereof.

Upon default money to be paid to county.
1879, 126, § 3.
P. S. 212, § 70.

SECTION 78. Upon the default of the defendant, such court, trial justice or magistrate may at any time thereafter order the money deposited as aforesaid to be forfeited, and the said justice, trial justice or magistrate with whom said deposit is made shall thereupon pay over the money to the county treasurer.

Self-surrender of defendant.
1879, 126, §§ 2, 4.
P. S. 212, §§ 69,
71.

SECTION 79. The defendant may surrender himself at any time before a default in the same manner as sureties in criminal cases may surrender their principal, and the court shall thereupon order the money so deposited to be returned to him or his order. The defendant, at any time after a default, may so surrender himself and the court may thereupon order the whole or any part of the money so deposited to be returned to him.

1874, 306, § 5.
P. S. 212, § 73.

SECTION 80. The term "magistrate", in any section of the statutes which provides for admitting persons to bail in criminal cases, shall be construed to include a bail commissioner, so far as to give him authority to act in any case of admitting prisoners to bail.

1897, 266, §§ 1, 3.
1898, 511, § 1.

SECTION 81. The superior court may appoint probation officers and the justice of each police, district or municipal court and the chief justice of the municipal court of the city of Boston shall appoint one probation officer. Said chief justice may also appoint not more than five male and two female assistant probation officers.
Each probation officer and assistant probation officer so appointed shall hold his office during the pleasure of the court which makes the appointment.

1 SECTION 82. The justice of a police, district or municipal court
2 may, in the absence of the probation officer, appoint a probation 3 officer pro tempore, who shall have the powers and perform the 4 duties of the probation officer, and who shall receive from the 5 county as compensation for each day's service an amount equal to 6 the rate by the day of the compensation of the probation officer;
7 but compensation so paid for any excess over fourteen days' service 8 by a probation officer pro tempore in any one calendar year shall 9 be deducted by the county treasurer from the compensation of the 10 probation officer.

Probation officers pro tempore.
1894, 372.

1 SECTION 83. Said probation officers shall not be active members
2 of the regular police force, but so far as necessary in the perform-
3 ance of their official duties shall have all the powers of police 4 officers, and if appointed by the superior court may, by its direction, 5 act in any part of the commonwealth and shall report to the court.
6 Their records may at all times be inspected by the chief of police 7 or city marshal of any city or town, or by the board of police for 8 the city of Boston.

1898, 511, § 1.

1 SECTION 84. Each probation officer shall inquire into the na-
2 ture of every criminal case brought before the court under the 3 appointment of which he acts, and may recommend that any per-4 son convicted thereby be placed upon probation. Female assistant
5 probation officers shall investigate the cases of all women charged 6 with crime in the municipal court of the city of Boston and per-7 form such other duties as the justices of said court may require.
8 Each probation officer shall keep full records of all cases investi-
9 gated by him, of all cases placed in his care by the court, and of 10 any other duties performed by him. The court may place the per-11 son so convicted in the care of a probation officer for such time and 12 upon such conditions as may seem proper. The superior court
13 may also place upon probation under any of its probation officers
14 any person charged before it with crime. Each person released
15 upon probation shall be furnished by the probation officer with a 16 written statement of the terms and conditions of his release.

1 SECTION 85. The probation officers of such police, district and 2 municipal courts as the prison commissioners shall from time to 3 time designate shall give such information relative to their work
4 to said commissioners as they shall request and shall report to said
5 commissioners, upon forms to be furnished by them, such facts as 6 the commissioners desire relative to all cases brought before said 7 courts which are investigated by said officers, and relative to the 8 cases of all persons placed on probation in their custody. The 9 prison commissioners shall keep a record of all cases reported to 10 them, in a form convenient for reference.

1900, 449, § 5.

SECTION 87. The prison commissioners shall, from time to time, confer with the justices of the several courts for the purpose of securing an improvement of the probation service, of promoting uniformity in the performance of the duties of probation officers and of obtaining a better co-ordination of their work. They shall also confer with the probation officers of said courts and give them such assistance as will promote the best interests of the service.

— between probation officers.
1900, 449, § 6.

SECTION 88. If the prison commissioners are of opinion that a conference of any or all of the probation officers and assistant probation officers will secure their better co-operation with each other and will promote the efficiency of their work, they shall cause such conference to be held, and one of the commissioners shall preside over it.

Report and recommendations.
1900, 449, § 7.

SECTION 89. The prisons commissioners shall annually, in November, report to the governor on the operation of the probation system and its results, and make recommendations for the improvement of the service.

Assistance, etc.
1900, 449, § 8.

SECTION 90. Said commissioners shall be provided with such additional office accommodations as they may need and the necessary facilities for carrying on the work required by the five preceding sections, and may employ such assistance as the governor and council shall from time to time authorize.

SECTION 92. The compensation of each probation officer and assistant probation officer of a police, district or municipal court shall be determined by the justice thereof, subject to the approval of the county commissioners, and shall be paid by the county, upon vouchers approved by said justice and the county commissioners, or, in the county of Suffolk, by the institutions commissioner. The salary of each probation officer who is appointed by the superior court shall be determined by the court, and shall be apportioned by it from time to time among the counties wherein said officer performs his services.

1 SECTION 93. The reasonable expenses incurred by probation
 2 officers of the superior court in the performance of their duties shall 3 be approved and apportioned by the court, and paid by the county
 4 to which they are thus apportioned. Probation officers of police, 5 district and municipal courts shall be reimbursed by the county for 6 their actual disbursements for necessary expenses incurred while in 7 the performance of their duties, including their reasonable travel-
 8 ling expenses in attending the conferences authorized by section 9 eighty-eight, not exceeding two hundred dollars to each in any one 10 year, upon vouchers approved by the justice by whom they are 11 appointed.

SECTION 5. The clerk of the court shall prepare an alphabetical list of the names of all persons returned as grand jurors, and, when they are to be impanelled, the first two persons named thereon shall be first called, and the following oath shall be administered to them:—

You, as grand jurors of this inquest for the body of this county of ———, do solemnly swear that you will diligently inquire, and true presentment make, of all such matters and things as shall be given you in charge; the commonwealth's counsel, your fellows' and your own, you shall keep secret; you shall present no man for envy, hatred or malice, neither shall you leave any man unrepresented for love, fear, favor, affection or hope of reward; but you shall present things truly, as they come to your knowledge, according to the best of your understanding; so help you God.

The other jurors shall then be called in such divisions as the court considers proper, and the following oath shall be administered to them:—

The same oath which your fellows have taken on their part, you and each of you on your behalf shall well and truly observe and keep; so help you God.

Contents of indictment. 1899, 409, §§ 6, 7, 12.	SECTION 17. An indictment shall contain:— First, The caption, which shall consist of the name of the commonwealth, county and court in which the indictment is presented, and the time of the sitting of the court. One caption will be sufficient, although the indictment contains more than one count. Second, A plain and concise description of the act which constitutes the crime, or the appropriate legal term descriptive of such act, without a detailed description thereof. The words used in a statute to define a crime, or other words conveying the same meaning, may be used.	1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10
Circumstances of the act. 1899, 409, § 13.	SECTION 18. The circumstances of the act may be stated according to their legal effect, without a full description thereof.	1 2
Name of defendant. 1899, 409, § 8.	SECTION 19. If the name of an accused person is unknown to the grand jury, he may be described by a fictitious name or by any other practicable description, with an allegation that his real name is unknown. An indictment of the defendant by a fictitious or erroneous name shall not be ground for abatement: but if at any subsequent stage of the proceedings his true name is discovered, it shall be entered on the record and may be used in the subsequent proceedings, with a reference to the fact that he was indicted by the name mentioned in the indictment.	1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9
Time and place. 1899, 409, § 10.	SECTION 20. The time and place of the commission of the crime need not be alleged unless it is an essential element of the crime. The allegation of time in the caption shall, unless otherwise stated, be considered as an allegation that the act was committed before the finding of the indictment, after it became a crime, and within the period of limitations. The name of the county and court in the caption shall, unless otherwise stated, be considered as an allegation that the act was committed within the territorial jurisdiction of the court. All allegations of the indictment shall, unless otherwise stated, be considered to refer to the same time and place.	1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10
Means. 1899, 409, § 14.	SECTION 21. The means by which a crime is committed need not be alleged in the indictment unless they are an essential element of the crime.	1 2 3
Description of written instrument. 1899, 409, § 15.	SECTION 22. If an allegation relative to a written instrument which consists wholly or in part of writing, print or figures is necessary, it may describe such instrument by any name or designation by which it is usually known, or by the purport thereof, without setting out a copy or facsimile of the whole or of any part thereof; and no variance between such recital or description and the instrument produced at the trial shall be material, if the identity	1 2 3 4 5 6 7

8 of the instrument is evident and the purport thereof is sufficiently 9 described to prevent prejudice to the defendant.

1 SECTION 23. If an allegation relative to any bullion, money,
2 notes, bank notes, checks, drafts, bills of exchange, obligations or 3 other securities for money of any country, state, county, city, town,
4 bank, corporation, partnership or person is necessary, it may de-5 scribe it as money, without specifying any particulars thereof; and 6 such descriptive allegation shall be sustained by proof of any 7 amount of bullion, money, notes or other securities for money as 8 aforesaid, although the particular nature thereof shall not be proved.

1 SECTION 24. The value or price of property need not be stated,
2 unless it is an essential element of the crime. If the nature, degree
3 or punishment of a crime depends upon the fact that the property ex-4 ceeds or does not exceed a certain value, it may be described, as the 5 case may be, of more than that value, or of not more than that value.

— of value or
1899, 409, § 17.

1 SECTION 25. If an indictment for a crime which involves the 2 commission or attempted commission of an injury to property de-3 scribes the property with sufficient certainty in other respects to 4 identify the act, it need not allege the name of the owner.

— of ownership.

1 SECTION 26. If one element of the criminality of an act is its
2 commission in a public place, and if such place is not more par-
3 ticularly defined in the statute, the act may be alleged generally to 4 have been committed "in a public place".

1 SECTION 28. If it is necessary to set forth the judicial proceed-
2 ings in any case then or formerly pending in any court, civil or 3 military, or any proceedings before a justice of the peace or any 4 other magistrate, only the substance of said proceedings or such 5 part thereof as shall constitute in whole or in part the crime charged 6 need be alleged.

— of judicial proceedings.

1 SECTION 29. An allegation that the defendant committed the 2 act charged shall be a sufficient allegation that he was criminally 3 responsible therefor.

General intent.
1899, 409, § 9.

1 SECTION 30. If an intent to injure or defraud is an essential
2 element of a crime, an intent to injure or defraud may be alleged 3 generally, without naming the person, corporation or government
4 intended to be injured or defrauded. Proof of an intent to injure 5 or defraud any person or body corporate shall be competent to sup-6 port the allegation.

SECTION 33. Presumptions and conclusions of law, matters of which judicial notice is taken and allegations which are not required to be proved need not be alleged. An indictment shall not be considered defective or insufficient because it omits to allege that the crime was committed, or the act was done "traitorously", "feloniously", "burglariously", "wilfully", "maliciously", "negligently", "unlawfully" or otherwise similarly to describe the crime, unless such description is an element of the crime charged, or because it omits to allege that the crime was committed or done with "force and arms", or "against the peace", or against the form of the statute or statutes, or against a by-law, ordinance, order, rule or regulation of any public authority, nor because it omits to state or misstates the title, occupation, estate or degree of the defendant or of any other person named in the indictment, or of the name of the county, city, town or place of his residence, unless such omission or misstatement tends to the prejudice of the defendant. An indictment shall not be considered defective or insufficient by reason of describing a fine or forfeiture as enuring to the use of the commonwealth instead of to the use of the county, city or town, nor by reason of any misstatement as to the appropriation of any fine or forfeiture, nor by reason of its failure to allege or recite a special statute or a by-law or ordinance of a city or town or order of the mayor and aldermen or selectmen or rules or regulations of any public board of officers.

Immaterial
1899, 409, § 5.

SECTION 34. An indictment shall not be quashed or be considered defective or insufficient if it is sufficient to enable the defendant to understand the charge and to prepare his defence; nor shall it be considered defective or insufficient for lack of any description or information which might be obtained by requiring a bill of particulars as provided in section thirty-nine.

He shall not be acquitted by reason of an immaterial misnomer of a third party, by reason of an immaterial mistake in the description of property or the ownership thereof, by reason of failure to prove unnecessary allegations in the description of the crime or by reason of any other immaterial mistake in the indictment.

Scope of word
"oath."
1899, 409, § 22.

SECTION 36. The word "oath" as used in an indictment shall include an "affirmation".

Exceptions and provisos.
1899, 409, § 26.

SECTION 37. An excuse, exception or proviso which is not stated in the enacting clause of a statute creating a crime or which

3 is stated only by reference to other provisions of the statute need 4 not be negatived in the indictment unless it is necessary for a com-
 5 plete definition of the crime. If any statute shall prescribe a form
 6 of indictment in which an excuse, exception or proviso is not 7 negatived, it shall be taken that it is not necessary to a complete
 8 definition of the crime that they should be negatived. If a statute
 9 which creates a crime permits an act, which is therein declared
 10 to be criminal, to be performed without criminality under stated 11 conditions, such conditions need not be negatived.

1 SECTION 38. The words used in an indictment may, except as 2 otherwise provided in this section, be construed according to their 3 usual acceptation in common language; but if certain words and 4 phrases are defined by law, they shall be used according to their 5 legal meaning.

Meaning of words and phrases.
 1899, 409, § 12.

6 The following words, when used in an indictment, shall be suffi-
 7 cient to convey the meaning herein attached to them:—

8 Adultery.—The sexual intercourse by a married man with a 9 woman not his wife, by an unmarried man with a married woman, 10 by a married woman with a man not her husband.

11 Affray.—The fighting together of two or more persons in a 12 public place to the terror of the persons lawfully there.

13 False Pretences.—The false representations made by word or 14 act which are of such a character, or which are made under such 15 circumstances and in such a way, with the intention of influencing 16 the action of another, as to be punishable.

17 Forgery.—The false making, altering, forging or counterfeiting
 18 of any instrument described in section one of chapter two hundred 19 and nine, or any instrument which, if genuine, would be a founda-20 tion for or release of liability of the apparent maker.

21 Fornication.—The sexual intercourse between a man and an un-22 married woman.

23 Murder.—The killing of a human being, with malice afore-24 thought.

25 Rape.—The unlawful forcible carnal knowledge by a man of a 26 woman against her will or without her consent; or the carnal 27 knowledge by a man of a female child under the statutory age of 28 consent.

29 Robbery.—The taking and carrying away of personal property 30 of another from his person and against his will, by force and 31 violence, or by assault and putting in fear, with intent to steal.

32 Stealing.—Larceny.—The criminal taking, obtaining or con-33 verting of personal property, with intent to defraud or deprive the 34 owner permanently of the use of it; including all forms of larceny, 35 criminal embezzlement and obtaining by criminal false pretences.

1 SECTION 39. The court may, upon the arraignment of the 2 defendant, or at any later stage of the proceedings, order the pros-
 3 ecution to file a statement of such particulars as may be necessary 4 to give the defendant and the court reasonable knowledge of the 5 nature and grounds of the crime charged, and if it has final juris-
 6 diction of the crime, shall so order at the request of the defendant
 7 if the charge would not be otherwise fully, plainly, substantially evidence and the bill of particulars, the court may order the bill of particulars to be amended, and may postpone the trial, which may be before the same or another jury, as the court may order. If, in order to prepare for his defence, the defendant desires information as to the time and place of the alleged crime or as to the means by which it is alleged to have been committed, or more specific information as to the exact nature of the property described as money, or, if indicted for larceny, as to the crime which he is alleged to have committed, he may apply for a bill of particulars as aforesaid.

Indictment for larceny.

SECTION 40. In an indictment for criminal dealing with personal property with intent to steal, an allegation that the defendant stole said property shall be sufficient; and such indictment may be supported by proof that the defendant committed larceny of the property, or embezzled it, or obtained it by false pretences.

SECTION 42. In an indictment for perjury alleged to have been committed in a criminal case an allegation of the substance of the crime shall be sufficient: if it is alleged to have been committed in a civil case, an allegation of the nature of the controversy in general terms shall be sufficient. In both cases, the court or magistrate before whom the oath or affirmation was taken shall be alleged, but no part of the proceeding in which, or the commission or authority of the court or person before whom, the perjury was committed need be alleged.

CHAPTER 220.

OF JUDGMENT AND EXECUTION.

1 SECTION 1. A police, district or municipal court may, upon 2 conviction of the defendant, impose sentence although the de-
 3 fendant is placed on probation. The court may thereupon order 4 the execution of the sentence to be suspended for such time and 5 upon such terms and conditions as it prescribes, and place the 6 defendant in the custody of the probation officer during such sus-7 pension. If the defendant has been sentenced to pay a fine and to 8 stand committed until it is paid, he may pay it to the probation
 9 officer at any time during the period of probation, and said officer 10 shall give a receipt therefor, keep a record thereof, pay it to the 11 clerk of the court at the next session of the court and keep on file 12 the clerk's receipt therefor.

SECTION 3. Sentence shall be imposed upon conviction of a crime which is not punishable by death, although exceptions have been alleged or an appeal has been taken. The reservation, filing or allowance of exceptions, or the entry of an appeal, shall not stay the execution of the sentence unless the justice imposing it, or a justice of the supreme judicial court, files a certificate that in his opinion there is reasonable doubt whether the judgment should stand. If sentence is so stayed, the justice may at the same time make an order relative to the custody of the prisoner or for admitting him to bail.

SECTION 9. If a person has been convicted of a crime which is punishable, at the discretion of the court, by fine or imprisonment in the jail or house of correction or by fine or imprisonment in the state prison, the court may impose upon him a conditional sentence, and order him to pay a fine within a limited time which shall be

6 expressed in the sentence, and in default thereof to suffer such 7 imprisonment as is provided by law. He shall be forthwith com-
 8 mitted to the custody of an officer in court or to the jail, to be 9 detained until the sentence is complied with; and if he does not 10 within the time limited pay the fine imposed, the sheriff shall cause 11 the other part of the sentence to be executed forthwith.

1 SECTION 10. Whoever is convicted of a crime which is punish-
 2 able by fine and imprisonment either in the jail or house of correc-
 3 tion, except a registered pharmacist who is convicted under the 4 provisions of section twenty-nine of chapter one hundred, may, at 5 the discretion of the court, be sentenced to be punished by im-
 6 prisonment only, or by a fine only, if he shows to the satisfaction

SECTION 23. If a convict who is serving a sentence of imprisonment in a jail or house of correction is convicted of a felony, the court may impose sentence of imprisonment in the state prison and order it to take effect forthwith, notwithstanding the former sentence. The convict shall thereupon be removed to the state prison, and shall be discharged at the expiration of his sentence thereto.

Same subject.

SECTION 24. If a convict who is serving a sentence of imprisonment in the Massachusetts reformatory is convicted of a crime which is punishable by imprisonment in the state prison or house of correction, the court may impose sentence of imprisonment therein and

5 may order it to take effect forthwith, notwithstanding the former 6 sentence. The convict shall thereupon be removed accordingly, and 7 shall be discharged at the expiration of his sentence thereto.

1 SECTION 25. The form of a sentence to the state prison shall 2 be, that the convict be punished by confinement at hard labor and by 3 solitary imprisonment for such term, not exceeding twenty days at 4 one time, as the court orders. In the execution of such sentence,
5 the solitary imprisonment shall precede the punishment by hard 6 labor, unless the court otherwise orders; but in case of severe ill-
7 ness of the convict, the warden, upon the certificate of the physician 8 of the prison, may postpone the solitary imprisonment until the 9 health of the convict is so far restored that his life will not be en-

SECTION 33. The officer who serves the precept in a criminal case shall, without charging travel therefor, return it with his doings and fees indorsed thereon to the court or magistrate issuing it, who shall tax, allow and certify the fees as a part of the expenses in the case. In case of commitment, the officer shall leave with the jailer or keeper of the prison an attested copy of the precept, with his return thereon, which shall authorize the detention of the person committed.

Service of new mittimus upon convict.
G. S. 174, § 23.
P. S. 215, § 29.

SECTION 34. If a convict who is imprisoned under sentence is again sentenced to confinement in a prison other than that in which he is then held, the warrant for his commitment in pursuance of the second sentence shall be placed in the hands of the warden or keeper of the prison in which the convict is held, and said warden or keeper, upon the expiration of the first sentence, shall commit the convict in obedience to said warrant.

Default of corporation.
1851, 348, § 1.
G. S. 174, § 29.
P. S. 215, § 30.

SECTION 35. If a corporation, after being duly served with process, fails to appear and answer to an indictment or complaint which is brought against it under the laws of this commonwealth, its default shall be recorded, the charges in the indictment or complaint taken to be true, and judgment shall be rendered accordingly.

Warrant of distress.
1851, 348, § 2.
G. S. 174, § 30.
P. S. 215, § 31.

SECTION 36. If judgment is rendered against a corporation upon an indictment or complaint under the laws of this commonwealth, the court may issue a warrant of distress to compel the payment of the penalty prescribed by law, with interest.

1876, 166, § 1.
P. S. 215, § 32.
1898, 326, § 1.

SECTION 37. In pronouncing sentence of death upon a person who is convicted of a capital crime, the court shall appoint a week within which the sentence shall be executed. The clerk of the court shall, as soon as may be, make out and deliver to the governor a certified copy of the whole record of the conviction and sentence, and shall immediately thereafter make out, sign and deliver to the sheriff of the county in which the conviction was had a warrant under the seal of the court stating the conviction and sentence, and the week appointed for the execution thereof, and shall at the same time transmit to the warden of the state prison a certi-

1 fied copy of the warrant. Such warrant shall be directed to the 2 warden of the state prison commanding him to cause execution to 3 be done in accordance with the provisions of such sentence upon a 4 day within the week so appointed.

1 SECTION 38. After a convict has been sentenced to the punish-2 ment of death, he shall be confined in jail in the county in which 3 he was convicted until within ten days of the first day of the week 4 appointed for the execution of the sentence of death. He shall,
 5 within such ten days, at a time chosen by the sheriff, be conveyed 6 by him or a deputy designated by him, as secretly as may be, to 7 the state prison, and shall, with the warrant, be delivered to the 8 warden thereof or to the officer performing the duties thereof. He 9 shall, unless lawfully discharged from such imprisonment, be kept 10 in a cell provided for the purpose from the time of such delivery
 11 until the sentence of death is executed upon him, and no person 12 shall be allowed access to him without an order of the court, 13 except the officers and employees of the prison, his counsel, and 14 such physicians, priest or minister of religion as the warden may 15 approve, and the members of his family who are identified to the 16 satisfaction of the warden. If the execution of the sentence of 17 death is respited by the governor, or is otherwise delayed by pro-18 cess of law, the convict may, in the discretion of the warden, be 19 confined in one of the cells in the solitary prison established by 20 chapter one hundred and nine of the resolves of the year eighteen 21 hundred and ninety-four.

1901, 520.

1 SECTION 39. The sentence of death shall be executed by the 2 warden of the state prison, or by a person acting under his direc-
 3 tion, within the week appointed by the court, unless the governor
 4 pardons the crime, commutes the punishment therefor or respites
 5 the execution. If the execution is respited, the sentence of death 6 shall be executed within the week beginning on the day next after 7 the day on which the term of respite expires. The sentence of 8 death shall be executed upon such day within the week appointed 9 as the warden elects, at some time between midnight and sunrise;
 10 but no previous announcement thereof shall be made, except to 11 such persons as may be permitted to be present.

1 SECTION 40. The punishment of death shall be inflicted by 2 causing a current of electricity of sufficient intensity to cause death
 3 to pass through the body of the convict, and the application of 4 such current shall be continuous until he is dead. The sentence
 5 shall be executed within an enclosure or building for that purpose 6 adjoining the state prison and the company which furnishes the 7 electric power or light to the state prison shall provide all neces-8 sary electricity for executions at such times as the warden orders.

1 SECTION 41. If a person who is convicted of a capital crime is,
 2 at the time when motion for sentence is made, found by the court
 3 to be insane, it may cause such person to be removed to one of the 4 state insane hospitals for such term and under such limitations as 5 it may order. If a woman who is convicted of a capital crime is,
 6 at the time when motion for sentence is made, found by the court to

3 proceeding in which the fine or forfeiture was imposed was tried, or 4 in the county of Suffolk, to the collector of the city of Boston. A 5 fine or forfeiture which is imposed by a police, district or municipal 6 court or by a trial justice shall, except as otherwise provided, be 7 paid to the city or town in which the crime or offence was com-
 8 mitted. If the whole or any part of a fine is by law payable to a 9 complainant or informant or to a person or corporation as benefi-
 10 ciary, the court or magistrate may apportion the fine or forfeiture 11 between such complainant, informant or other beneficiary and the 12 county, city or town, respectively.

 1879, 54.
 P. S. 17, § 11.

1 SECTION 6. Before imposing a fine as a penalty or part penalty
 2 for a crime, the court or justice shall determine the reasonable and 3 actual expenses of the prosecution, including the services of officers 4 and witnesses, the detention and support of the defendant and the 5 expense of serving a mittimus or other warrant of commitment;
 6 and may impose a fine, not exceeding the maximum fine prescribed 7 for the crime, which shall include the whole or any part of the 8 amount of the expenses so found and determined. If the presiding 9 justice is of opinion that the maximum fine is an inadequate pen-
 10 alty for the crime committed, he may impose such maximum fine 11 and order the defendant to pay the whole or any part of the ex-12 penses of the prosecution. Defendants who pay such expenses
 13 after commitment shall also pay the expense of commitment.

SECTION 8. The clerk of the superior court for the transaction of criminal business for the county of Suffolk, the clerks of the municipal courts in Boston, the sheriff, master of the house of correction or other officer, except those named in the following section, upon receiving fines, fees or other money in any criminal proceedings, which are to be paid to the county of Suffolk or to the city of Boston, shall, before the tenth day of every month, pay over to the collector of said city and account, under oath, for all fines, fees or other money so received during the preceding calendar month, and make the detailed statements now required by law.

Same subject.
1891, 236, § 3.

SECTION 9. The clerks of all courts in the county of Suffolk, except those named in the preceding section, who are required to account to the city of Boston shall, on or before the tenth day of each month, pay over to the collector of said city and account, under oath, for all fines, fees and other money received by them in any criminal proceedings during the preceding calendar month which remain after the payments therefrom allowed by law.

Payment of
1891, 236, § 2.

SECTION 10. The treasurer of the city of Boston shall pay to the persons who are entitled thereto all witness fees or other money due for services rendered in any of the courts named in section eight, or for any of the aforesaid officers, upon presentation to him of a certificate stating the name of the claimant, of the court and of the case, the nature of the services rendered and the amount due therefor, signed by the clerk of the court or by the officer for whom the service was rendered.

SECTION 12. A sheriff who, having a person in his custody by virtue of the sentence of a court, voluntarily or negligently suffers him to escape shall be held to have received the fines, forfeitures or forfeited recognizances described in the preceding section, at the time of the escape, and shall be liable for the same, with interest and costs, as if he had received them.

1 SECTION 13. If a sheriff neglects to make such payment for 2 thirty days, the county treasurer shall recover of him in an action
3 of contract the amount of such fines, forfeitures and forfeited recog-
4 nizances, with interest at the rate of twelve per cent from the time
5 of receiving or from the time he is held to have received the same 6 and costs.

2 who are entitled thereto all amounts allowed to them for expenses
3 or fees in criminal prosecutions, or allowed by the courts as re-
4 wards or compensations to prosecutors, which have been duly 5 certified by the clerks, if demanded within three years after the 6 allowance thereof; but he shall pay no such amounts to a trial
7 justice, or to a justice or clerk of a police, district or municipal 8 court, until the justice or clerk has rendered an account in writing
9 of all fines received by him since his last return, and of all fees

SECTION 1. There shall be a board of prison commissioners, consisting of five persons, two of whom shall be women, and one of whom shall be appointed annually in June by the governor, with the advice and consent of the council, for a term of five years from the first Wednesday of July. The governor shall designate one member as chairman of the board, and he shall receive a salary of four thousand dollars a year. The other members of the board shall not receive any compensation; but they and the chairman shall be reimbursed their actual personal expenses which are incurred while they are engaged in the performance of their official duties. No member of the board shall be concerned or interested, directly or indirectly, in a contract, purchase or sale which is made on account of any prison. The board may delegate to the chairman any of its powers and duties, except the authority to release and transfer prisoners.

SECTION 2. The commissioners shall appoint a secretary who shall not be a member of the board, but shall be its executive officer, and shall hold office during the pleasure of the commissioners. He shall receive from the commonwealth an annual salary of twenty-five hundred dollars, and his necessary expenses which are incurred in the performance of his official duties. The commissioners may elect one of their members secretary pro tempore who, in the absence of the secretary, shall perform his duties. They may expend annually for clerical assistance such sums as may be appropriated therefor by the general court.

Duties; rules.
1827, 118, § 7.

G. S. 179, § 14.

SECTION 3. They shall have the general supervision of the state prison, of the Massachusetts reformatory, of the reformatory prison

3 for women and of jails and houses of correction. They shall 4 make rules for the direction of the officers of such institutions in 5 the performance of their duties, for the government, discipline and 6 instruction of the convicts therein, for the custody and preservation 7 of the property connected therewith, for the supply of food, cloth-
 8 ing and bedding in the state prison, Massachusetts reformatory 9 and reformatory prison for women, for teaching prisoners who are 10 committed to a jail or house of correction for six months or more 11 to read and write, for securing proper exercise for unemployed sen-12 tenced prisoners in jails and houses of correction and for securing 13 medical examination and supervision of prisoners in jails and houses 14 of correction who are punished by solitary imprisonment. As soon 15 as may be after such rules have been made, the commissioners shall 16 submit copies thereof to the governor and council who may approve,
 17 annul or modify them. Jailers, keepers of houses of correction, 18 county commissioners and the penal institutions commissioner of 19 the city of Boston shall make no rules inconsistent with the afore-20 said rules.

 241, 290.]

1 SECTION 4. The full board shall visit the state prison, Massa-2 chusetts reformatory and the reformatory prison for women semi-3 annually and shall make a thorough examination thereof. The 4 commissioners or one of them shall also visit said prisons at least 5 once in each month; and a majority of the board shall visit said 6 prisons once in three months, for the purpose of inspecting the 7 books and all the affairs thereof and of ascertaining whether the 8 laws and rules are duly observed, the officers competent and faith-9 ful and the convicts properly governed and employed. They shall 10 forthwith report to the governor and council any violation of law 11 or neglect or omission of duty, which comes to their knowledge, by 12 any officer of the state prison, Massachusetts reformatory or reform-13 atory prison for women who holds his office by appointment of the

THE STATE PRISON.

General Provisions.

1 SECTION 1. The state prison at Boston in the county of Suffolk
2 shall be the general penitentiary and prison of the commonwealth in 3 which all male persons who have been convicted of crime in a court 4 of this commonwealth or in any court of the United States and who 5 have been sentenced by them according to law to solitary imprison-6 ment and confinement in the state prison at hard labor shall be 7 securely confined and employed at hard labor; but a person who has 8 been convicted and sentenced before a court of the United States 9 need not be received in said prison unless the United States shall 10 agree with the prison commissioners to pay all expenses incurred by 11 the commonwealth in maintaining him therein.

SECTION 6. The warden shall have the custody and control of all convicts in the prison and shall govern and employ them according to law, pursuant to their respective sentences and to the rules and regulations of the prison, until their sentences have been performed or they are otherwise discharged by due course of law. He shall also have the charge and custody of the prison, and of the land, buildings, furniture, tools, implements, stock, provisions and all other property belonging to it or within its precincts. He shall be treasurer of the prison, and shall receive and disburse all money paid by the commonwealth for the support thereof, and shall cause regular and complete accounts to be kept of all the property, expenses, income and business of the prison. He may, with the approval of the board of prison commissioners, expend not more than three hundred dollars annually for the entertainment of official and other visitors to the state prison, such expenditures to be paid out of the annual appropriations for the support of said prison.

SECTION 8. If the office of warden is vacant, or if the warden is absent from the prison or is unable to perform the duties of his office, the deputy warden shall have the powers, perform the duties and be subject to the liabilities of the warden. If the office of warden becomes vacant, the commissioners may require the deputy warden to give a bond to the commonwealth in the sum of ten thousand dollars, with sureties who shall be approved by them, conditioned for the faithful performance of his duties as deputy warden and treasurer until a warden is appointed. After the approval of such bond, the deputy shall, so long as he performs the duties of the office, receive the salary of the warden in lieu of his salary as deputy warden. If the deputy warden does not give such bond when required, the commissioners may remove him from the office of warden and appoint a warden pro tempore, who shall give such bond, and shall have the power and authority, perform the duties and receive the salary of the warden until a warden is duly appointed and qualified.

Oath of subordinate
officers.

SECTION 9. All subordinate officers of the state prison, before entering upon the performance of their official duties, shall take and subscribe the following oaths:

I, A. B., do solemnly swear that I will bear true faith and allegiance to the commonwealth of Massachusetts, and will support the constitution thereof. So help me, God.

I, A. B., do solemnly swear that I will obey the lawful orders of all my superior officers. So help me, God.

I, A. B., do solemnly swear and affirm that I will faithfully and impartially discharge and perform all the duties incumbent on me in the office to which I have been appointed, according to the best of my abilities and understanding, agreeably to the rules and regulations of the constitution, the laws of the commonwealth and the rules provided in accordance with law for the government of the state prison. So help me, God.

The oaths may be administered by any officer who is authorized by law to administer an oath and a record thereof shall be in the possession of the warden.

SECTION 10. Each of said officers shall give bond to the commonwealth in the sum of one thousand dollars, with sureties, who shall be approved by the warden, conditioned to obey the rules of the prison and faithfully to perform his duties as such officer, and not to leave the service of the commonwealth, without giving at least ten days' notice in writing to the warden, unless sooner released by him. The approval of the sureties shall be indorsed on the bond, and it shall be filed in the office of the treasurer and receiver general.

Bond of subordinate officers.
1901, 364.

SECTION 11. The warden and deputy warden shall reside constantly within the precincts of the prison. The deputy warden, clerk, watchmen, assistant watchmen and all other subordinate officers of the prison shall perform such duties in the charge and oversight of the prison, the care of its property and the custody, government, employment and discipline of the convicts, as the warden, in conformity to law and the rules and regulations of the prison, may require.

1 SECTION 24. The superintendent shall reside at all times within 2 the precincts or dependencies of the reformatory, he shall have the 3 custody and control of all prisoners committed to the reformatory,
 4 the management and direction of the reformatory, under the rules
 5 and regulations thereof, and the custody and control of the build-6 ings and property of the commonwealth connected therewith. He 7 shall receive and securely keep, according to the terms of the sen-8 tence, any male person who is sentenced to the reformatory by any 9 court of the United States, or who is sentenced by such court to any 10 other prison and removed to the reformatory. He shall purchase 11 all necessary supplies for the reformatory, and shall receive and 12 pay out all money advanced by the commonwealth for the support 13 thereof. He shall cause full and accurate books of account of the 14 property, expenses, income and business of the reformatory to be 15 kept. He may, with the approval of the board of prison commis-16 sioners, expend not more than three hundred dollars annually for

SECTION 29. The officers of said prison shall be a superintendent, deputy superintendent, chaplain, physician, clerk, as many matrons, assistant matrons and deputy matrons, not exceeding

4 twenty-six, as the superintendent and the commissioners may judge
5 necessary. All said officers shall be women, except that the super-6 intendent may be either a man or a woman.

1 SECTION 30. The superintendent shall be appointed by the 2 prison commissioners, and hold office during their pleasure. All
3 other officers and employees, except the steward, shall be appointed 4 by the superintendent, and shall hold their offices during the 5 pleasure of the superintendent.

1 SECTION 32. The commissioners may, in behalf of the common-
2 wealth, hold not more than one acre of land within the town of 3 Sherborn, which may be used for the burial of prisoners who die 4 in the prison.

Burial place for convicts.
1882, 213.

1 SECTION 33. The superintendent shall reside at all times within 2 the precincts or dependencies of the prison, shall have the cus-
3 tody and control of all prisoners committed thereto and shall gov-
4 ern and employ them according to law, pursuant to their sentences
5 and the rules and regulations of the prison. He shall have the 6 management and direction of the prison, its servants and employees, 7 and all its affairs, except as otherwise provided.

1883, 267, § 1.

1 SECTION 34. He shall receive and disburse all money paid
2 by the commonwealth for the support of said prison, shall pur-
3 chase all supplies and all other articles needed for carrying on and 4 managing the prison, shall have the custody and control of all
5 property connected with or belonging to the prison and shall cause
6 regular and complete books of accounts of all the property, ex-7 penses, income and business of the prison to be kept.

Control of property.
1883, 267, § 1.

1 SECTION 35. If the superintendent is absent from the prison, or 2 is unable to perform the duties of his office, the deputy superin-
3 tendent shall have the powers, perform the duties and be subject to 4 the liabilities of the superintendent. If the office of superintendent
5 is vacant, the prison commissioners may require the deputy 6 superintendent to perform the duties of superintendent and to give 7 a bond to the commonwealth in the sum of ten thousand dollars, 8 with sureties who shall be approved by them, conditioned for the 9 faithful performance of her duties as deputy superintendent until a 10 superintendent is appointed and to faithfully account for all money
11 which comes into her hands as such. After the approval of her 12 bond, she shall, so long as she performs the duties of superintend-13 ent, receive the salary of that officer in lieu of her salary as 14 deputy superintendent. If she does not give such bond when re-15 quired, the prison commissioners may remove her from office and 16 appoint a superintendent pro tempore, who shall give such bond,

SECTION 41. All contracts on account of said prisons shall be made by the warden or superintendents, respectively, in writing, and, when approved in writing by the commissioners, shall be binding. The warden and superintendents, or their successors, may sue or be sued upon any contract made in accordance with the provisions of this chapter. No such suit shall abate by reason of said offices becoming vacant, but the successor of either of said officers, pending such suit, may, and upon motion of the adverse party and notice shall, prosecute or defend it.

Arbitration of controversies.
R. S. 144, § 20.

SECTION 42. The warden or superintendent may submit any controversy relative to a contract made by him or an action pending on such contract to the final determination of arbitrators or referees who shall be approved by the commissioners. 1883, 267, § 5. G. S. 179, § 33. 1879, 294, § 20. P. S. 221, § 56.

SECTION 43. If, in the opinion of the commissioners, it can be advantageously done, the principal articles purchased for the use of said prisons shall be contracted for by the year. The warden or superintendent, as the case may be, shall publish notice in at least two newspapers a sufficient time for the information of the public of the articles wanted, their quantity and quality, the time and manner of delivery and the period during which proposals therefor will be received. Contracts for supplies by the year. 1821, 108, §§ 3, 4. 1825, 89, § 6. 1827, 118, § 16. R. S. 144, § 21. G. S. 179, § 34. 1879, 294, § 21. P. S. 221, § 57. 1883, 267, § 6.

SECTION 44. Such proposals shall be in writing and sealed, and on the day appointed they shall be opened by the warden or superintendent in the presence of the commissioners, who shall cause them to be entered in a book and compared. The persons who offer the best terms, with satisfactory security for the performance, shall be entitled to the contract unless it appears to the commissioners that it is not for the interest of the commonwealth to accept any of the proposals. In such case, no offer shall be accepted, and the warden or superintendent, with the consent of the commissioners, may contract for any of the articles wanted in a way which shall be for the best interests of the commonwealth. Every contractor shall give bond in a reasonable sum, with satisfactory surety, for the performance of his contract. Proposals to be in writing, etc. 1821, 108, § 3. 1827, 118, § 16. R. S. 144, §§ 22, 23. G. S. 179, § 35. 1879, 294, § 22. P. S. 221, § 58. 1883, 267, § 5.

SECTION 45. The warden or superintendent shall, at the time supplies for the prison are delivered, take bills of the quantity and price thereof, which the clerk or such officer as the warden or superintendent directs shall compare with the articles delivered and, if they are correct, shall enter them with the date upon a book to be kept for the purpose. Bills of all services rendered for the prison shall be taken and entered in like manner. If a bill for supplies or services is incorrect, the clerk shall not enter it, but shall inform the warden or superintendent, that the error may be corrected. Bills to be taken of all purchases, services, etc. R. S. 144, § 24. G. S. 179, § 37. P. S. 221, § 24.

APPROPRIATIONS.

SECTION 46. An annual appropriation shall be made for the support of said prisons. The salaries and pay of officers and employees and all bills for supplies and other expenditures for said prisons shall be paid monthly from the treasury of the commonwealth, having first been certified by the auditor, upon schedules, enumerating the bills and pay rolls and accompanied by vouchers. The name and position of each officer, the amount of his pay and the amount due to him shall be on the pay roll, which, with the bills, shall be certified by the warden or by the superintendent, as the case may be. A record in full of the pay rolls and bills shall be made by the clerk in a book kept for the purpose at each prison and the originals shall be deposited with the auditor as vouchers. Annual appropriation. Salaries, etc., to be paid monthly. 1864, 303, §§ 2, 3. 1874, 385, §§ 23, 24. P. S. 221, §§ 59, 60. 1883, 267, § 5. 1884, 255, § 50. 1888, 403, § 7.

2 each sitting of the superior court at which criminal business may 3 be transacted, return to the court a list of all prisoners in their 4 custody, specifying the causes for which, and the persons by whom,
5 they were committed, and produce and exhibit therewith, for the 6 inspection of the court, their calendars of prisoners, and return a 7 like list of the persons committed during the session of the court,
8 in order that the court may take cognizance and make deliverance 9 according to law of the prisoners committed for crimes within its 10 jurisdiction. Jailers who neglect to make such reports or to 11 exhibit their calendars shall be punished by a fine at the discretion 12 of the court.

SECTION 25. The keeper of each jail and the master of each house of correction shall, at the expense of the county, cause it to be constantly kept in as cleanly and healthful a condition as may be. No permanent vault shall be used in any apartment. Every room occupied by a prisoner shall be furnished with a suitable bucket, with a cover made to shut tight, for the necessary accommodation of such prisoner, and such bucket, when used, shall be emptied daily and shall be constantly kept in good order. 1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8

Removal of prisoners in case of pestilence. R. S. 143, § 41. G. S. 178, § 48. P. S. 220, § 51.

SECTION 26. If disease breaks out in a jail or other prison, which, in the opinion of the inspectors of the prison, may endanger the lives or health of the prisoners to such a degree as to render their removal necessary, the inspectors may designate in writing a suitable place within the same county, or any prison in a contiguous county, as a place of confinement for such prisoners. Such designation, having been filed with the clerk of the superior court, shall be a sufficient authority for the sheriff, jailer, master or keeper to remove all the prisoners who are in his custody to the place designated and there to confine them until they can be safely returned to the place whence they were removed. Any place to which the prisoners are so removed shall, during their imprisonment therein, be deemed a prison of the county in which they were originally confined, but they shall be under the care, government and direction of the officers of the county in which they are confined. 1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15

— In case of danger from fire. R. S. 143, § 42. G. S. 178, § 49. P. S. 220, § 52.

SECTION 27. If a jail or other prison or any building near thereto is on fire and the prisoners are exposed to danger thereby, the sheriff, jailer or other person who has charge of the prison may remove them to a safe place, and there confine them as long as may be necessary to avoid the danger, and such removal and confinement shall not be deemed an escape of the prisoners. 1 2 3 4 5 6

EXPENSE OF SUPPORTING PRISONERS.

County commissioners to procure supplies. 1859, 249, § 4. G. S. 178, § 50. P. S. 220, § 53.

SECTION 28. The county commissioners shall, except in the county of Suffolk, without extra charge or commission to themselves or to any other person, procure or cause to be procured all necessary supplies for the jails and houses of correction, to be purchased and provided under their direction and at the expense of the county. 1 2 3 4 5 6

1 SECTION 29. The expense of keeping and maintaining convicts
 2 sentenced to imprisonment in the jail or house of correction, of 3 the keeping of persons charged with or convicted of crime and 4 committed for trial or sentence, and of prisoners committed on 5 mesne process or execution, so long as the fees for their board are 6 paid by the defendant or debtor, plaintiff or creditor, shall be paid 7 by the county after the accounts of the keeper or master have been 8 settled and allowed by the county commissioners, or, in the county
 9 of Suffolk, by the auditor of the city of Boston; and no allowance 10 therefor shall be made by the commonwealth.

SECTION 2. They shall keep a record of all money or other 1 property which is found in the possession of prisoners who are com- 2 mitted to such institutions; and shall be responsible to the com- 3 monwealth for the safe keeping and delivery of said property to said 4 prisoners or their order upon or at any time before their discharge 5 from prison. 6

1 SECTION 3. They shall keep a record of the name and number
 2 or other sufficient designation of every person punished by solitary
 3 imprisonment, the day and hour when he was placed in solitary
 4 imprisonment, the day and hour when released, the offence and such 5 remarks as may be necessary to complete the record. The prison
 6 commissioners shall ascertain whether the requirements of this 7 section are observed.

1 SECTION 4. The jailer, keeper or master of each jail and house
 2 of correction shall keep in a bound book an exact calendar of all
 3 prisoners committed thereto, in which shall be recorded the names
 4 of all prisoners, their places of abode and additions, the time, 5 cause and authority of their commitment, and, if they have been 6 committed upon a sentence on conviction of crime, a description of 7 their persons, and such facts as, with the entries in the prison book, 8 will enable the sheriff or penal institutions commissioner of the 9 city of Boston to make the reports to the prison commissioners 10 which are required by law. He shall record in the same book the 11 time and authority for the release of every prisoner who is released 12 and the time and manner of the escape of a prisoner who escapes.
 13 A jailer, master or keeper who neglects to keep such calendar or to 14 enter such facts therein shall forfeit one hundred dollars, which shall 15 be recovered by the county commissioners in the name of the county, 16 or, in the county of Suffolk, by the penal institutions commissioner
 17 in the name of the city of Boston, and shall be expended by them 18 or him for the relief of discharged prisoners.

R. S. 144, § 33.
1850, 289, § 4.

1 SECTION 27. No communication between the prisoners in the 2 state prison and any person without the prison shall be allowed.
3 The prisoners shall be confined in separate cells in the night time, 4 and all intercourse between them in the day time shall, as far as 5 is practicable, be prevented: but the warden may, at such times and 6 under such circumstances as he considers expedient, with the con-7 sent of the commissioners, allow them to assemble together in the 8 yard for recreation and exercise.

SECTION 30. All penal institutions shall be suitably and sufficiently ventilated. The food, clothes, beds and bedding therein shall be of good quality and of sufficient quantity for the sustenance and comfort of the prisoners, and the bedding shall include mattresses, blankets and pillows. The warden of the state prison, the superintendent of the Massachusetts reformatory and of the reformatory prison for women, respectively, and the keepers and masters of jails and houses of correction shall see that strict attention is constantly given to the personal cleanliness of all prisoners in their custody. They shall, once at least in each week, cause the shirt of each prisoner to be washed, each male prisoner to be shaved, and each prisoner to have a bath of cold or tepid water applied to the whole surface of the body if such bath would not, by reason of illness, be hurtful or dangerous. Each prisoner shall be provided daily with as much clean water as he needs for drink or for the purpose of personal cleanliness, and with a clean towel once a week. Clothes shall not be washed or hung out wet in any room which is occupied by a prisoner during the night. All prisoners who are not in solitary confinement shall be served three times each day with a sufficient quantity of wholesome food, well cooked and in good order.

Visitors to state prison.

35.

SECTION 32. The warden shall cause a register to be kept of the names and residences of all visitors and of the authority by which they visit, which shall always be open to the commissioners. He may refuse admission to a person who has a permit, if such admission would be injurious to the best interests of the prison, but he shall forthwith report such refusal to the commissioners.

Punishment.

Gag forbidden.

1879, 181.

P. S. 222, § 6.

SECTION 33. Punishment by the use of the gag shall not be allowed in any penal or charitable institution. An officer of any such institution who uses a gag as a punishment shall be punished by a fine of not more than fifty dollars.

Solitary labor.

R. S. 144, § 32.

G. S. 179, § 42.

P. S. 221, § 29.

SECTION 35. A prisoner in the state prison who is sentenced to solitary imprisonment or who is subjected thereto for a violation of the rules and regulations of the prison shall be confined in a solitary cell and be fed with bread and water only, unless the physician of the prison certifies to the warden that his health requires other diet.

1 SECTION 36. When a prisoner is sentenced to solitary imprison-
 2 ment and hard labor in a jail or house of correction, the master or 3 keeper shall execute such sentence by confining him in one of the 4 cells, and during the time of solitary imprisonment, he shall be fed 5 with bread and water only, unless other food is necessary for the 6 preservation of his health. No intercourse shall be allowed with a 7 prisoner in solitary imprisonment, except for the conveyance of 8 food and other necessary purposes.

1 SECTION 37. As soon as the term of solitary imprisonment has 2 expired, the master or keeper shall provide the prisoner with tools
 3 and materials or other means for work in a suitable manner, in 4 which he can be usefully or profitably employed in the house of 5 correction or jail, or close yard thereof; but no prisoner shall be 6 employed in engraving or printing. Such prisoner may, if neces-
 7 sary, be confined by a log and chain or in such other manner as 8 shall prevent his escape without unnecessarily inflicting bodily pain 9 or interrupting his labor. The county commissioners, or, if the 10 punishment is inflicted in the jail, the sheriff, shall oversee the ex-11 ecution of all such sentences.

1 SECTION 38. If a prisoner is refractory, or if, during the time for 2 which he is sentenced to hard labor, he refuses or neglects without 3 reasonable cause to labor in a suitable manner when required, he 4 shall be kept in solitary imprisonment and fed on bread and water,
 5 as before provided, so long as he is refractory or refuses to labor;
 6 but the keeper of a jail or master of a house of correction shall not 7 keep a prisoner in solitary imprisonment for more than three days
 8 at one time without informing the sheriff or county commissioners 9 thereof and of the reasons therefor.

1 SECTION 39. If a person who is confined in a jail or house of 2 correction upon a conviction or charge of a crime against the com-
 3 monwealth is refractory or disorderly, or wilfully or wantonly de-4 stroys or injures any article of furniture or other property or any 5 part of such prison, the sheriff or county commissioners or penal 6 institutions commissioner of the city of Boston, respectively, after 7 due inquiry, may cause him to be kept in solitary imprisonment not 8 more than ten days for one offence; and, during such imprison-9 ment, to be fed with bread and water only, unless other food is 10 necessary for the preservation of his health.

1 SECTION 40. If a person who is committed to jail on mesne
 2 process or execution, or for any cause other than those mentioned
 3 in the preceding section, is convicted of any of the offences therein
 4 named, he shall be punished by solitary imprisonment, as directed 5 in said section, for not more than ten days for each offence, and 6 shall be liable in an action of tort, to be commenced by the sheriff 7 or county treasurer in the name and to the use of the county, for 8 double the amount of the damage done to the jail, furniture or 9 other property.

 1873, 143. prisoners in the several prisons and other places of confinement 2
 1876, 61, §§ 1, 3. shall see to it that every cell therein which may be used as a place 3
 P. S. 222, §§ 3, 5. for solitary imprisonment is properly ventilated and furnished with 4 a form of boards, not less than six and one-half feet long, eighteen 5 inches wide and four inches high from the floor, and with a suffi- 6 cient amount of bedding to protect the inmate from injury to 7 health. The prison commissioners shall ascertain whether the re- 8 quirements of this section are observed. 9

Labor of Prisoners.

Establishment of industries. SECTION 43. The prison commissioners and the warden of the 1
 1887, 447, §§ 1, 7. state prison, the superintendent of the Massachusetts reformatory, 2
 1888, 22; 403, of the reformatory prison for women or of the state farm, masters, 3
 §§ 1, 5. keepers or superintendents of jails and houses of correction, or of 4
 1897, 412, § 3; any other penal institution of the commonwealth, or of any county, 5
 434. shall determine the industries which shall be established and main- 6
 1900, 269. tained in the respective institutions which are under the control of 7
 1901, 364, § 2. said officers. The prisoners in said institutions shall be employed 8
 173 Mass. 217. in said industries under regulations which shall be established by 9 the prison commissioners, but no contract shall be made for the 10 labor of prisoners, except that, with the approval of the prison 11 commissioners, prisoners may be employed in cane seating and the 12 manufacture of umbrellas under the "piece price system", so called. 13

Instructors. SECTION 44. The warden, superintendent, master or keeper of 1
 1887, 447, § 2. any institution described in the preceding section may, with the 2
 1897, 434. approval of the prison commissioners, appoint such superintendents 3
 1900, 269. and instructors to instruct the prisoners in said industries as he and 4 the prison commissioners shall consider necessary. Such superin- 5 tendents and instructors shall have the same authority relative to 6 the prisoners as the subordinate officers of the institution in which 7 they are employed. Their compensation shall be fixed and they 8 may be removed by the warden, superintendent, master or keeper, 9 with the approval of the prison commissioners. 10

Articles to be produced. SECTION 45. The prison commissioners shall, as far as possible, 1
 1887, 447, § 13. cause such articles and materials as are used in the public insti- 2
 1898, 334, § 1. tutions of the commonwealth and of the several counties which are 3
 1900, 269. established, maintained or supported, wholly or in part, by the ap- 4 propriation of public money or such as are used in the public 5 institutions of cities which, according to the latest census, state or 6 national, had a population of forty thousand inhabitants, to be pro- 7 duced by the labor of prisoners in the institutions named in section 8 forty-three. 9

Industries at Massachusetts reformatory. SECTION 46. They and the superintendent of the Massachusetts 1
 1884, 255, § 28. reformatory shall endeavor to establish in said reformatory such 2
 1888, 403, § 7. industries as, within the provisions of this chapter, will enable 3 prisoners employed therein to learn valuable trades. 4

1 SECTION 47. The number of prisoners in all the institutions
 2 named in section forty-three who may be employed in the industries
 3 hereinafter named, shall be limited as follows: in the manufacture
 4 of brushes, not more than eighty; in the manufacture of cane chairs
 5 with wood frames, not more than eighty; in the manufacture of 6 clothing other than shirts or hosiery, not more than three hundred 7 and seventy-five; in the manufacture of harnesses, not more than 8 fifty; in the manufacture of mats, not more than twenty; in the 9 manufacture of rattan chairs, not more than seventy-five; in the 10 manufacture of rush chairs, not more than seventy-five; in the man-11 ufacture of shirts, not more than eighty, and they shall be women; 12 in the manufacture of shoes, not more than three hundred and 13 seventy-five; in the manufacture of shoe heels, not more than one 14 hundred and twenty-five; in the manufacture of trunks, not more 15 than twenty; in stone cutting, not more than one hundred and 16 fifty; in laundry work, not more than one hundred.

1 SECTION 49. The provisions of the two preceding sections shall 2 not apply to prisoners who are engaged in the manufacture of 3 goods for use in the penal or public charitable institutions or hos-
 4 pitals of the commonwealth, of the counties thereof or of the cities 5 described in section forty-five.

Application of preceding sections.
1897, 412, § 4.

1 SECTION 50. If the prison commissioners and the warden, super-
 2 intendent, master or keeper of any institution named in section 3 forty-three consider the employment of prisoners or a part of them
 4 upon the piece price plan expedient, they shall advertise for bids
 5 therefor, which shall be opened publicly, and a copy and record
 6 thereof shall be kept by the prison commissioners. If said offi-
 7 cers consider it inexpedient to accept any of such bids, contracts 8 may be made with other persons. Copies of all contracts for the 9 employment of prisoners shall be kept by the prison commission-10 ers, and shall at all times be open to public inspection.

1 SECTION 51. The tools, implements and materials required for 2 use in manufacturing in any penal institution named in section 3 forty-three shall, and such machinery as may be necessary to replace 4 any which becomes unfit for use, or which is destroyed by fire or 5 by the malicious acts of prisoners or to establish new trades or in-6 dustries may, be purchased by the warden, superintendent, master
 7 or keeper thereof under the supervision of the prison commission-8 ers after estimates or requisitions, in such form as he shall from 9 time to time require, have been approved by him.

which prevails at the time of sale for goods of the same description and quality; but this provision shall not apply to goods furnished to public institutions for the use of the inmates thereof. The proceeds of such sales shall be paid by the purchasers to the respective institutions from which the goods are delivered.

Purchasing and selling agents.
1888, 403, § 3.

SECTION 53. The warden, superintendent, master or keeper of any institution named in section forty-three may, with the approval of the prison commissioners, appoint agents who, under such regulations as the prison commissioners shall from time to time establish, shall purchase tools, implements, materials and machinery and sell manufactured goods as aforesaid. They may be removed at the pleasure of the officer by whom they were appointed and shall receive such compensation as said officer with the approval of the prison commissioners shall determine. The prison commissioners shall have no authority to purchase or sell any articles for any institution.

1900, 269.

SECTION 54. The warden, superintendent, master or keeper of each institution named in section forty-three shall make a full report to the prison commissioners when and as they require relative to the labor of the prisoners. The prison commissioners shall from time to time send to them, to the principal officers of public institutions which are described in section forty-five, to the auditor of the commonwealth and to the auditing and disbursing officers of each county and city, a list of such articles and materials as can be produced by the labor of the prisoners. The warden, superintendent, master, keeper or principal officer of any such institution in which such articles or materials are needed shall apply therefor to the prison commissioners upon forms to be provided by them. The prison commissioners shall thereupon forthwith inform him in what institutions they are produced, and he shall purchase them from any institution so designated. If they are needed immediately and are not on hand, the prison commissioners shall forthwith so notify him, and he may purchase them elsewhere; but a bill for articles or materials named in said list which are so purchased shall not be paid unless it is accompanied by a certificate of the prison commissioners that they could not be supplied from any of said institutions.

1901, 364.

SECTION 55. The auditor of the commonwealth, the controller of county accounts and the chairman of the board of prison commissioners shall constitute a board to determine the prices of articles or materials manufactured and sold under the provisions of sections forty-five and fifty-four. The prices shall be uniform and shall conform as nearly as may be to the usual market price of like goods manufactured elsewhere. The members of the board shall receive no compensation for such services, but the actual and necessary expenses incurred by them in the performance of such services shall be paid from the appropriation for the incidental and contingent expenses of the prison commissioners.

Accounting for receipts and payment of expenses.

SECTION 56. The receipts from the labor of prisoners in the state prison, the Massachusetts reformatory, the reformatory prison

3 for women and the state farm shall be paid into the treasury of the 4 commonwealth monthly, and the receipts from the labor of prisoners
 5 in a jail or house of correction shall be paid into the county treas-
 6 ury monthly, and so much thereof as is necessary to pay the ex-
 7 pense of maintaining the industries in said institutions shall be 8 expended therefrom for that purpose; but not until schedules of 9 such expenses have been sworn to by the warden or superintendent
 10 and approved by the prison commissioners. Receipts from any one 11 of the institutions shall be applied to paying the bills of that institu-
 12 tion only. The warden or superintendent of the state prison, Massa-
 13 chusetts reformatory, reformatory prison for women or state farm 14 shall, as often as he has in his possession money to the amount of 15 ten thousand dollars which he has received under the provisions of 16 the thirteen preceding sections, pay it into the treasury of the com-
 17 monwealth, and the master or keeper of a jail or house of correction
 18 shall, as often as he has in his possession such money to the amount 19 of five thousand dollars, pay it into the county treasury.

1 SECTION 57. Bills for tools, implements, machinery and mate-
 2 rials purchased by, and the salaries of persons employed in, the 3 state prison, the Massachusetts reformatory, the reformatory prison
 4 for women and the state farm under the provisions of the fourteen 5 preceding sections shall be paid monthly from the treasury of 6 the commonwealth, upon schedules prepared and sworn to by the 7 warden or superintendent and approved by the prison commis-
 8 sioners. Bills for tools, implements, machinery and materials pur-9 chased by, and the salaries of persons employed in, the jails and 10 houses of correction under the provisions of said sections shall be 11 paid monthly from the county treasury, upon schedules prepared 12 and sworn to by the master or keeper and approved by the prison 13 commissioners. The schedules of bills for tools, implements and 14 machinery and of bills for materials and salaries shall be kept 15 separate from each other and from the schedules of bills incurred for 16 the maintenance of the prison, reformatory, jail or house of cor-17 rection.

Payment of salaries and bills for tools, etc.
 1887, 447, §§ 3, 4.
 1891, 228, § 3.

1 SECTION 58. The warden, superintendent, master or keeper of 2 any institution named in section forty-three may sue or be sued
 3 upon any contract of purchase or sale made by him under the pro-4 visions of the fifteen preceding sections. No suit shall abate by 5 reason of a vacancy in any such office, but the successor of any such 6 officer may, and upon motion of the adverse party shall, prosecute 7 or defend it. The warden, superintendent, master or keeper may 8 submit a controversy relative to such contract or an action thereon 9 to the final determination of arbitrators or referees who shall be 10 approved by the governor, or, if the suit is brought by or against 11 the master or keeper of a jail or house of correction, they shall be 12 approved by the county commissioners.

1 SECTION 59. The prison commissioners may cause the prisoners
 2 in any jail or house of correction to be employed within the pre-3 cincts of the prison in preparing material for road making; but 4 no machine except such as is operated by hand or foot power shall 5 be used in connection with such employment.

Preparation of road material.
 1898, 365, § 1.

Highway commission to give instruction.
1898, 365, § 2.

SECTION 60. The Massachusetts highway commission shall, at the request of the prison commissioners, give them such information and instructions as will enable them to direct said employment in a manner which will furnish suitable and proper material for road building.

Sale of road material.
1898, 365, § 3.

SECTION 61. Material so prepared may be sold to the county commissioners or to city and town officers who have the care of public roads. All material not so sold shall be purchased by the Massachusetts highway commission, at such price as they determine is fair and reasonable, for use on state highways; but the prison commissioners may cause any of said prisoners to be employed upon material furnished by said highway commission, who shall then pay for the labor of preparation such price as may be agreed upon by said prison commissioners and said highway commission.

Payment of
1898, 365, § 4.

SECTION 62. All money received under the provisions of the three preceding sections shall be paid into the county treasury, and the expenses of employing prisoners thereunder shall be paid from the county treasury, in the manner provided in section fifty-six. Payment for material sold or labor performed thereunder shall be made to the master or keeper of the jail or house of correction where it is prepared or performed.

Land for industrial camp.
1898, 393, §§ 1, 2.

SECTION 63. The governor and council may purchase or otherwise take in fee any parcel of waste or unused land, not exceeding one thousand acres in area, for the purpose of reclaiming, improving and disposing of it for the benefit of the commonwealth. When land has been so taken, the governor and council shall cause a description thereof as certain as is required in an ordinary conveyance of land to be filed in the registry of deeds for the county or district in which the land lies, with a statement, signed by the governor, that it is taken on behalf of the commonwealth for the purposes described in this section. The act and time of filing such description shall be considered the act and time of taking such land, and shall be sufficient notice to all persons that the land has been so taken. The title to such land shall then vest in the commonwealth.

Damages.

SECTION 64. The governor and council may settle by agreement or arbitration the amount to be paid to any person for land so taken, and if such amount is not so determined within sixty days after it has been taken, they shall appraise the value of every unsettled interest therein as far as can be ascertained and file the appraisal with the auditor, who shall, upon the application of any person whose interest has been so appraised, certify the amount awarded to him by such appraisal, and a warrant shall be drawn for the payment of such amount from the treasury of the commonwealth. The acceptance of such payment shall be an acknowledgment of full satisfaction. A person who is aggrieved by such appraisal may, upon application within one year after the taking, have his damages assessed by a jury in the manner provided for the taking of land for highways.

1 SECTION 65. After such land has been so taken, the prison
 2 commissioners, with the approval of the governor and council, shall 3 cause iron buildings of cheap construction to be erected thereon for 4 the accommodation of not more than one hundred prisoners. When 5 such buildings are ready for occupancy, the governor may issue his 6 proclamation establishing on such land a temporary industrial camp
 7 for prisoners, and the prison commissioners may appoint a superin-
 8 tendent thereof, who shall hold his office at their pleasure, give 9 such bond as they require, receive such salary as they determine 10 and who shall have the custody of all prisoners removed thereto.
 11 The superintendent, with the approval of the prison commissioners, 12 may appoint and determine the compensation of assistants, and they 13 shall hold their office at his pleasure.

Establishment of camp.

1898, 393, §§ 4-6.

1 SECTION 66. Prisoners held at such camp shall be subject to all
 2 the laws applicable to prisoners at the state farm and, with the 3 approval of the prison commissioners, may be released from said
 4 camp by the superintendent thereof in the same manner as prisoners 5 are released from the state farm by the trustees thereof. They 6 shall be employed in reclaiming and improving said land and in 7 preparing material for road building, by hand labor, under regu-
 8 lations made by the prison commissioners. The Massachusetts 9 highway commission and the board of agriculture shall from time to 10 time, at their request, give them such information as will enable 11 them to cause the work to be prosecuted to the best advantage.

Employment of prisoners.
1898, 393, §§ 7, 8.

1 SECTION 67. The expenses of maintaining said camp shall be 2 paid by the commonwealth, upon schedules sworn and certified to 3 by the superintendent and approved by the prison commissioners.
 4 Purchases and sales on account of said camp, except as to the 5 land, shall be made by the superintendent with like approval. Re-
 6 cepts for articles or materials sold shall be paid into the treasury 7 of the commonwealth each month.

Expense of maintenance.
1898, 393, § 9.

1 SECTION 68. Land reclaimed or improved, as aforesaid, may be 2 applied to the use of the commonwealth, or it may be disposed of 3 by the governor and council at public or private sale. Any road
 4 material prepared, as aforesaid, may be sold by the superintendent 5 of said camp, with the approval of the prison commissioners, to 6 the authorities of the commonwealth or of any county, city or 7 town.

Disposition of improved land.
1898, 393, § 10.

Binding Out Female Prisoners.

1 SECTION 69. The commissioners may, with the consent of a 2 woman who is serving a sentence in the reformatory prison for 3 women or in a jail or house of correction, and with the consent of 4 the county commissioners, if she is in a jail or house of correction,
 5 contract to have her employed in domestic service for such term,
 6 not exceeding her term of imprisonment, and upon such conditions,
 7 as they consider proper with reference to her welfare and reforma-
 8 tion. If, in their opinion, her conduct at any time during the term 9 of the contract is not good, they may order her to return to the 10 prison from which she was taken.

SECTION 101. The state board of insanity shall designate two 1 persons, experts in insanity, to examine prisoners in the state 2 prison, the Massachusetts reformatory or the reformatory prison for 3 women, who are alleged to be insane. If any such prisoner appears 4 to be insane, the warden or superintendent shall notify one of the 5 persons so designated, who shall, with the physician of the prison, 6 examine the prisoner and report to the governor the result of their 7 investigation. If, upon such report, the governor considers the 8 prisoner insane and his removal expedient, he shall issue his warrant, 9 directed to the warden or superintendent, authorizing him to cause 10 the prisoner, if a male, to be removed to the state asylum for insane 11 criminals, and if a female, to be removed to one of the state insane 12 hospitals, there to be kept until, in the judgment of the superin- 13 tendent and trustees of the hospital to which the prisoner has been 14 committed, he or she should be returned to prison. When the 15 superintendent and trustees determine that the prisoner should be 16 so returned, they shall so certify upon the warrant of the governor, 17 and notice shall be given to the warden or superintendent of the 18 prison, who shall thereupon cause the prisoner to be reconveyed to 19 the prison, there to remain pursuant to the original sentence, com- 20 puting the time of his detention or confinement in the hospital as 21 part of the term of his imprisonment. The person who makes such 22 examination of a prisoner shall, if he is not a salaried officer of the 23 state board of insanity, receive three dollars a day for his services 24 for each day so employed and his actual travelling expenses, which 25 shall be paid from the annual appropriation of the prison in which 26
the prisoner is examined. 27

SECTION 102. If a prisoner in a jail, house of correction or 1 prison other than those named in the preceding section appears to 2 be insane, the physician in attendance shall make a report thereof 3 to the jailer or master, who shall transmit the same to one of the 4 judges mentioned in section thirty-three of chapter eighty-seven. 5
The judge shall make inquiry into the facts and, if satisfied that 6 the prisoner is insane, shall, if a male, order his removal to the 7 state asylum for insane criminals, or if a female, to one of the state 8 insane hospitals, pursuant to the provisions of sections thirty-four 9 and thirty-five of said chapter. A person so removed who becomes 10 sane before the expiration of the sentence shall be forthwith re- 11 turned to the prison or house of correction from which he or she 12 was removed, there to remain pursuant to the original sentence, 13 computing the time of confinement in the hospital as part of the 14 term of imprisonment. 15

sentence, except for a capital crime, appears to be insane, he may 2 be removed to the state asylum for insane criminals or if a female, 3 to one of the state insane hospitals, in the same manner as a pris- 4 oner may be removed from a house of correction under the provi- 5

sions of the preceding section. If a person so removed is, in the opinion of the trustees and superintendent of the hospital, restored to sanity, he shall forthwith be returned to the jail from which he was removed, where he shall be held in accordance with the terms of the process by which he was originally committed thereto.

SECTION 104. A prisoner who is removed or returned under the provisions of the twenty-four preceding sections shall be held in the place of imprisonment to which he is so removed or returned, in accordance with the terms of his original sentence, unless sooner discharged, and the period for which he is so removed shall be reckoned as a part of the term of his imprisonment.

SECTION 113. Every officer who is in charge of a prison or 1 other place of confinement, except the Massachusetts reformatory 2 and the state farm, shall keep a record of the conduct of each pris- 3 oner who is in his custody and whose term of imprisonment is four 4 months or more. Every such prisoner, except a prisoner who was 5 sentenced to the state prison for a crime which was committed on 6 or after the first day of January in the year eighteen hundred and 7 ninety-six, whose record of conduct shows that he has faithfully 8 observed all the rules and has not been subjected to punishment 9 shall be entitled to a deduction from the term of his imprisonment, 10 which shall be estimated as follows : upon a sentence of not less 11 than four months and less than one year, one day for each month : 12 upon a sentence of not less than one year and less than three 13 years, three days for each month : upon a sentence of not less than 14 three years and less than five years, four days for each month : 15 upon a sentence of not less than five years and less than ten years, 16 five days for each month : upon a sentence of ten years or more, 17 six days for each month. If a prisoner has two or more sentences, 18 the aggregate of his several sentences shall be the basis upon which 19

20 the deduction shall be estimated. A prisoner who is entitled to 21 such deduction from the term of his imprisonment shall receive 22 a written permit to be at liberty during the time so deducted, upon 23 such terms as the board which grants the permit shall prescribe.
 24 Permits to prisoners in the state prison and in the reformatory prison
 25 for women shall be issued by the prison commissioners; to pris-26 oners in the state farm, by the trustees; to prisoners in jails and 27 houses of correction, except in the county of Suffolk, by the county 28 commissioners; to prisoners in the jails and house of correction in 29 the county of Suffolk, by the penal institutions commissioner. If a 30 prisoner violates any of the rules of his prison or other place of 31 confinement, the board authorized by this section to grant permits 32 shall decide what portion of the time, which would otherwise be 33 deducted from the term of his imprisonment, shall be forfeited by 34 such violation.

1 SECTION 114. If it appears to the prison commissioners that 2 a prisoner who was sentenced to the state prison for a crime which 3 was committed prior to the first day of January in the year eighteen
 4 hundred and ninety-six and who is serving his first sentence therein
 5 has reformed, they may, if, after deducting the time to which he is 6 entitled by the preceding section, two-thirds of the minimum term
 7 of his sentence have expired, by a unanimous vote of all the mem-8 bers of the board, issue to him a permit to be at liberty during the 9 remainder of his term of sentence upon such terms and conditions 10 as they prescribe, if he has an assurance satisfactory to them that 11 he will have employment as soon as he is discharged, or is other-12 wise so provided for that he will not become dependent upon public 13 or private charity.

1 SECTION 115. If the record of a prisoner who was sentenced to 2 the state prison for a crime committed on or after the first day of 3 January in the year eighteen hundred and ninety-six shows that he 4 has faithfully observed all the rules of the prison and has not been 5 subjected to punishment, the commissioners shall, upon the expira-6 tion of his minimum term of sentence, issue to him a permit to be 7 at liberty therefrom during the unexpired portion of the maximum 8 term of his sentence, upon such terms and conditions as they shall 9 prescribe. If the record shows that he has violated the rules of the 10 prison, he may be given a like permit at such time after the expira-
 11 tion of the minimum term of his sentence as the commissioners 12 shall determine. If the prisoner is held in the prison upon two or 13 more sentences, he shall be entitled to receive such permit when 14 he has served a term equal to the aggregate of the minimum terms 15 of the several sentences, and he shall be subject to all the pro-16 visions of this section until the expiration of a term equal to the 17 aggregate of the maximum terms of said sentences.

SECTION 121. A probation officer may, with the consent of the county commissioners, or, in the county of Suffolk, of the penal institutions commissioner of the city of Boston, investigate the case of any person who is imprisoned in a jail or house of correction for a misdemeanor upon a sentence of not more than six months, or upon a longer sentence of which not more than six months remain unexpired, for the purpose of ascertaining the probability of his reformation if released from imprisonment. If, after such investigation, he recommends the release of the prisoner, and the court which imposed the sentence, or, if the sentence was imposed by the superior court, the district attorney, certifies a concurrence in such recommendation, the county commissioners or the penal institutions commissioner may, if they consider it expedient, release him

14 upon probation, upon such terms and conditions as they may pre-15 scribe and may require a bond for the fulfilment of such conditions.
 16 The surety upon any such bond may at any time take and sur-17 render his principal, and the county commissioners or the penal 18 institutions commissioner may at any time order any prisoner re-19 leased by them upon probation to return to the prison from which 20 he was released. The provisions of this section shall not apply to 21 persons held upon sentence of the courts of the United States.

1 SECTION 122. The state board of charity shall have the same
 2 power to discharge a person who has been removed from a jail or 3 house of correction to the state farm or from the state farm to a 4 house of correction as it would have to release him from the state 5 farm if he had been originally sentenced thereto, and shall have the 6 same authority to release a prisoner who has been removed thereto
 7 from the Massachusetts reformatory as the prison commissioners

 2 Boston, the penal institutions commissioner, subject to the approval
 3 of a justice of the court which imposed the sentence, after six months
 4 from the time of sentence, may discharge a person sentenced to the 5 house of correction, and the directors of a workhouse may dis-
 6 charge a person sentenced thereto upon a conviction under the pro-7 visions of section fifty-five of chapter two hundred and twelve of 8 being a common night walker, if they are satisfied that the prisoner 9 has reformed, or, for any term during the period of the sentence, 10 they may bind out such prisoner as an apprentice or servant to any 11 inhabitant of this commonwealth. Said commissioners and direct-12 ors and the master, mistress, apprentice or servant shall have all 13 the rights and privileges and be subject to all the duties set forth 14 in chapter one hundred and fifty-five, as if the prisoner had been 15 bound out by the overseers of the poor; and the relations of the 16 parties shall not be affected by the age of the person bound. If the 17 master or mistress is discharged from the contract of service or ap-18 prenticeship as provided in said chapter, the person bound shall 19 be returned to the place of confinement and shall serve out the SECTION 126. If a poor prisoner has been confined in a jail or house of correction for three months for fine or fine and expenses only, the jailer, master or keeper shall make a report thereof, in the county of Suffolk, to the municipal court of the city of Boston, in the county of Nantucket, to a trial justice and in other counties, to a police or district court. The court or trial justice shall inquire into the truth of the report and may require the jailer or keeper to bring the prisoner into court. If the court or trial justice finds that the report is true, and that the prisoner since his conviction has not had any property, real or personal, with which he could have paid the amount for which he was committed, and that he is held for no other cause, the court or trial justice shall order the sheriff, master or keeper to discharge the prisoner. A person under guardianship may have the benefit of the provisions of this section, although it appears that he has property held under guardianship, if it also appears that such property is beyond his actual control, and if he is discharged, the commonwealth may, in an action of tort brought within one year after the discharge, recover from his guardian, if he has assets, the amount of fine or fine and expenses which remain unpaid.

SECTION 129. The prison commissioners, the state board of charity, the county commissioners, the directors of a workhouse, or, in the county of Suffolk, the penal institutions commissioner of the city of Boston, if a permit to be at liberty issued by them, respectively, to a prisoner under the provisions of sections one hundred and thirteen to one hundred and fifteen, inclusive, and one hundred and seventeen to one hundred and twenty, inclusive, has become void or has been revoked, may issue an order authorizing the arrest of the holder thereof by any officer qualified to serve civil or criminal process in any county and the return of such holder to the prison from which he was released. The governor, if a permit to be at liberty issued to an habitual criminal under the provisions of section one hundred and sixteen has become void or has been revoked, shall issue his warrant authorizing the arrest of the holder thereof by any officer qualified to serve criminal process, and his return to state prison. A prisoner who has been so returned to his place of confinement shall be detained therein according to the terms of his original sentence. In computing the period of his confinement, the time between his release upon a permit and his return to prison shall not be considered as any part of the term of his original sentence. If, at the time of the revocation of his permit, he is confined in any prison, service of such order shall not be made until his release therefrom, and in such case, the time between the revocation of the permit and his return to the place of his original imprisonment shall not be considered as any part of the term of his original sentence.

SECTION 136. The prison commissioners may employ an agent for aiding prisoners who have been discharged from the state prison, at an annual salary of sixteen hundred dollars, payable by the commonwealth, who, in addition to his other duties, shall assist the secretary of the board. They may also employ three other agents, at an annual salary of twelve hundred dollars each, payable in like manner. Said agents shall endeavor to secure employment for prisoners who have been permanently discharged or released on probation from any of the penal institutions under the supervision of the board, advise such discharged prisoners as seek their aid, provide them with clothing, board and tools suitable for their employment and perform such other duties relative to such discharged or released prisoners as the board requires. They shall also obtain information for the board relative to prisoners who have been committed to institutions under its supervision, especially as to the details of their offences and their previous character and history. They may, for that purpose, require of the police authorities any facts in their possession relative to such prisoners if the communication thereof will not, in the opinion of said authorities, be detrimental to the public interest. They shall be reimbursed for the necessary expenses actually incurred by them in the performance of their official duties, after their bills therefor have been approved by the commissioners. The commissioners may expend not more than three thousand dollars annually for the assistance of prisoners discharged from the state prison and not more than five thousand dollars annually for the assistance of prisoners discharged from the Massachusetts reformatory or from any institution to which he was removed from said reformatory.

SECTION 137. The commissioners may also employ, at an annual salary of one thousand dollars, payable by the commonwealth, a woman as their agent in rendering assistance to female prisoners discharged from the prisons in this commonwealth. She shall

5 counsel and advise them, assist them in obtaining employment
 6 and, under the direction of the commissioners, may render them 7 pecuniary aid. The commissioners may expend not more than 8 three thousand dollars annually for the assistance of discharged
 9 female prisoners and may pay therefrom to the Temporary Asylum
 10 for Discharged Female Prisoners such amount as they shall deter-11 mine for the support of women charged with crime whose cases are 12 disposed of without sentence.

1 SECTION 138. The commissioners shall cause an account to be
 2 kept of the money expended by the agents for the necessary ex-
 3 penses of the service required by the two preceding sections, for 4 correspondence and travel in procuring employment for and furnish-5 ing clothing, board and tools to discharged prisoners and for con-
 6 veying them to their homes or places of employment; which, upon 7 approval by the auditor, shall be paid at the end of each month.

 2 treasury of the prison not more than five dollars to any prisoner
 3 leaving the prison who, in the opinion of the warden, by his good 4 conduct deserves it, or he may, in his discretion, pay it to the 5 agents appointed under the provisions of section one hundred and 6 thirty-six, who shall expend for the benefit of such prisoners
 7 what they thus receive, and shall account therefor to the commis-
 8 sioners. A prisoner who leaves the state prison shall be provided 9 with decent clothing.

 2 tion may, with the approval of the county commissioners, expend
 3 such amount, not exceeding ten dollars, in aiding a prisoner dis-
 4 charged from his custody as in his opinion will assist such prisoner 5 in his endeavor to reform. He may, in his discretion, pay it to the 6 prisoner, or to some person selected by the master or keeper to be 7 expended by him in behalf of the prisoner or for providing the pris-
 8 oner with board, clothing, transportation or tools. The amount so 9 paid by a master or keeper shall be allowed and paid by the county 10 like other prison expenses.
